REMEMBERING BOO FERRISS, A TRUE GENTLEMAN | 1921-2016

Boo Ferriss was more than just an exceptional Red Sox pitcher and respected big league pitching coach. He was an extraordinary person who endeared himself to everyone he met through his genuine humility, gentle nature and sincere regard for others. Boo's love for the game of baseball was unparalleled, and he loved to reminisce about the exciting 1946 season in which he went 25-6 and helped lead Boston to the American League pennant. When his big league baseball career was over, the 2002 Red Sox Hall of Fame inductee returned to his native Mississippi with his wife, Miriam, where he resumed his second career as the longtime beloved head baseball coach at Delta State University. Boo continued to faithfully follow the Red Sox on a daily basis, right up until his passing on November 24, 2016, Thanksgiving Day, just 11 days shy of his 95th birthday.

"You Can Never Rest"

As Principal Owner John W. Henry and Chairman Tom Werner begin their 16th season as stewards of the Red Sox franchise, the accomplishments are self-evident: the franchise has won three World Series titles, the first of which ended a championship drought of 86 years; Fenway Park has been saved and restored with unimagined improvements that blend modern amenities with the history and tradition that has made the ballpark one of the crown jewel sports venues in the world; and the Red Sox Foundation—which is celebrating its 15th year of existence—now plays a central role in the community, distributing more than $93 million to charities and programs across New England, with that total expected to eclipse $100 million in 2017.

The "new day" that Henry proclaimed when he, Tom Werner, Larry Lucchino and their partners purchased the Red Sox on December 20, 2001, ending the 69-year stewardship of Tom and Jean Yawkey and their trustees, did indeed come to pass.

But complacency has no place on Yawkey Way.

"You can never rest," Henry has said. "You have to continually adapt to change." And, he added with a figurative wink, "It wouldn't be fun to sit back, anyway."

The team did not sit back last season – on or off the field. After the club won 93 games and the American League East division title, Red Sox President Sam Kennedy spearheaded improvements to Fenway Park that began under a shortened timetable to accommodate the return of Frozen Fenway hockey for the third time in six years.

And while construction crews and rink specialists undertook their work in earnest, President of Baseball Operations Dave Dombrowski remained focused on adding depth and versatility to the 2017 roster with a series of bold moves, including last December's centerpiece trade for five-time All-Star Chris Sale.

As the leaders of the Red Sox embrace the challenges that come with the start of a new season, they continue to be guided by the fundamental principles that have served the franchise so well for over a decade, with a commitment to the following:

Commitment No. 1: Playing October Baseball Each Season, With the Ultimate Goal of Winning World Series Championships

In the first 15 seasons under current ownership, the Red Sox have compiled a .551 winning percentage, which ranks third overall in Major League Baseball. The Red Sox have won three World Series in that time, a feat equaled by one other team, the San Francisco Giants. The organization has reached postseason play eight times, a total eclipsed by only the Yankees (10) and Cardinals (9) and matched by the Dodgers. They also have enjoyed two separate three-year streaks of qualifying for the playoffs, after never before advancing to the postseason in three straight seasons.

The bands of consistent success paved the way for three majestic World Series runs. The first, in 2004, came in the wake of a crushing Game 7 defeat in the 2003 American League Championship Series against the New York Yankees, one that was eclipsed in drama by the unprecedented comeback staged by the Red Sox against the Yankees in the 2004 ALCS. When the last out was recorded in Yankee Stadium on October 20, 2004, the Red Sox became the first team in baseball history to win a seven-game postseason series after losing the first three games. The unbridled momentum of the ALCS carried through to St. Louis, where the Sox completed a four-game sweep, helping to salve Game 7 losses to the Cardinals in both the 1967 and 1946 World Series.

In 2007, the Red Sox gained sole possession of first place in the AL East on April 18 and never relinquished the division's top spot. The club continued its magical run with another stirring comeback in the ALCS, rallying from a 3-games-to-1 deficit to defeat the Cleveland Indians. The Sox then swept the Colorado Rockies for their second World Series title in four years.

In 2013, with a new manager in John Farrell and the signings of seven free agents in the offseason, a team that came to be known as a band of bearded brothers provided a needed emotional lift to a city devastated by the Boston Marathon bombing. To the rallying cry of "Boston Strong," the Red Sox defeated the Detroit Tigers in a thrilling, six-game ALCS. After securing their 13th AL pennant, the Red Sox disposed of the Cardinals in the World Series, also in six games, winning the decisive game at Fenway Park for the first time in 95 years.

The commitment to winning has never been stronger. The hiring of Dombrowski in August 2015 allowed the Red Sox to get a head start for the 2016 season. With intense focus and precise execution, Dombrowski articulated a clear vision of what the organization needed to accomplish heading into 2016. At the top of the wish list was a front end of the rotation starter and a back end reliever. Dombrowski, along with General Manager Mike Hazen and the baseball operations department, targeted and landed two of the best pitchers in the game in ace David Price and closer Craig Kimbrel. These pivotal additions complemented a core of homegrown young players such as Mookie Betts, Xander Bogaerts, and Jackie Bradley Jr, all of whom became first-time All-Stars. With David Ortiz enjoying the greatest farewell season in the game's history and Rick Porcello winning the Cy Young Award winner as the American League's best pitcher, the Red Sox won the AL East for the third time in the last 10 seasons.

Commitment No. 2: Preserving, Protecting and Enhancing Historic Fenway Park While Offering New and Unique Forms of Entertainment

Fenway Park was on life support when the team was up for sale in 2001. Only the Henry-Werner-Lucchino group sought to save Fenway Park.

Passion, ingenuity, and commitment fueled financial, intellectual, and physical improvements to the ballpark each year. The most significant renovations took place in the first 10 years (through the 2010-11 offseason), funded by the club's own investment of approximately $285 million. With the mantra of "Do No Harm," the ownership group set the course on an ambitious transformation to add more seats, information, and amenities at Fenway Park. From seamlessly putting seats above the hallowed Green Monster to utilizing every available square inch in the ballpark, they shortened lines, enhanced information access, and improved facilities for players and staff. They helped preserve and protect the neighborhoods around the park, from Kenmore Square through the Fenway to the Longwood medical area (home of world-renowned hospitals).

After their third season of improvements, Henry, Werner, and Lucchino committed on March 23, 2005 to remain long-term at Fenway Park. The news triggered gratitude, honors, and investment that rejuvenated the Fenway neighborhood. Fans responded by packing the ballpark in unprecedented numbers, resulting in a record sellout streak of 794 games (820 including the postseason). The streak began on May 15, 2003 and ended with a sellout on Opening Day, 2013.

With additional seats and standing room at Fenway Park, the club reached 2.7 million in attendance for the first time in 2003 – the first of seven consecutive seasons setting an attendance record – and exceeded 3 million fans in five straight years from 2008-12. Attendance averaged 36,487 per game in 2016, the eighth highest average in club history.

More significant ballpark improvements were undertaken last winter. The depth of both dugouts was increased three feet toward the field to allow for better circulation and sight lines from the benches. The field wall between and outside the expanded dugouts was moved forward the same three feet, allowing for the addition of 128 premium seats.

The fixed outfield wall in front of the bullpens was replaced with a new removable wall system, making it easier to accommodate non-baseball events. One of the most underserved areas of the ballpark, the right-field grandstand, will now have a terraced bar with 92 stool positions and new televisions, replacing 459 seats in the back rows of sections 5, 6 and 7.

In addition, four new day-of-game suites were added on the State Street Pavilion level, two on each baseline, each designed to hold up to a dozen fans, and the right-field terrace now boasts a 15 by 46-foot Mitsubishi video board.

To date, the Red Sox have spent over $300 million in ballpark improvements and upgrades.

Recognizing that Fenway Park could once again serve as a gathering place for the community beyond 81 baseball games each year, the ballpark has opened its doors to a wide variety of entertainment experiences year-round. This unique showcase of events began with Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, the first band invited to play at Fenway Park in 2003, making an encore appearance in 2012. That concert, the first in 30 years at Fenway Park, paved the way for a sweeping array of entertainment and sporting events.

On New Year's Day 2010, Fenway Park's playing surface served as foundation for a hockey rink, the Boston Bruins taking the ice for the National Hockey League's Winter Classic against the Philadelphia Flyers. It was a success, artistically and on the scoreboard, the Bruins winning, 2-1, in overtime. And in the winter of 2011-12, there would be more skating on the Fens, as several college and high school teams played in "Frozen Fenway" and time was set aside for open public skating. "Frozen Fenway" returned two years later, this time with the addition of a 75-foot "Monster Sled," the left-field wall serving as dramatic backdrop.

Fenway Park took on an international flavor in 2010, hosting its first soccer match in more than 40 years when Celtic FC of the Scottish Premier League took on Sporting Portugal. In 2012, a preseason friendly between two iconic franchises, Liverpool FC and A.S. Roma was held at the ballpark, with the Italian side winning, 2-1. Those two clubs met in a rematch in 2014, and Roma again came out on top, 1-nil.

The sporting menu was expanded again in 2015, in what became the Winter Season at Fenway Park. To great popular acclaim, football returned to the 105-year-old ballpark for the first time since 1968 when the Boston Patriots of the old American Football League played their home games. The baseball diamond underwent a dramatic transformation into a gridiron as Notre Dame took the field as the home team in the Shamrock Series against Boston College on November 21. The Fighting Irish edged the Eagles, 19-16. Days later, Fenway Park revived a tradition that had ended 80 years earlier of hosting Thanksgiving high school football. St. John's Prep played Xaverian and B.C. High played Catholic Memorial on Thanksgiving Eve, while Wellesley played Needham and Boston Latin met Boston English on Thanksgiving Day.

The football games were followed the next weekend by hurling, Galway meeting Dublin in a friendly, which was accompanied by an Irish Festival.

In February, 2016, another winter spectacle made its Fenway debut: "Big Air at Fenway," a snowboarding and free-skiing U.S. Grand Prix tour event. It featured a 140-foot-high snow ramp, taller than the light towers at the ballpark and over three times taller than the fabled Green Monster. After a summer in which a record 11 concerts were held, including a first-ever appearance by Pearl Jam, ice hockey returned in January, 2017, with "Capital One Frozen Fenway" held for the fourth time.

It is not enough for the Red Sox to have a winning team playing in a historic ballpark; every employee of the Red Sox is challenged to create an experience that matches, or exceeds, the expectations of every fan who walks through the gates of Fenway Park.

With instruction that we are in the "yes business," the motto heard most around the halls of 4 Yawkey Way is, "it can be done."

To help bring that motto to life, on September 5, 2002, the club created the Fenway Ambassadors, a good-will troupe whose mandate is to delight, inform, and care for fans young and old. From the simple task of giving directions, to surprising a child with a game ball who missed catching their own, the Fenway Ambassadors work to fulfill the club's mission to apply a personal touch and create memorable experiences for all who visit.

Since 2002, the club has put a special emphasis on making all fans feel welcome at the ballpark. "Friendly Fenway" has been manifested through fan appreciation gestures each September when fans are greeted by players at the gates, given special giveaways and opportunities to interact with the players on the field. New improvements and amenities have sought to provide fans with all the comforts that make their visit enjoyable, including enhanced WiFi and cellular networks, a new space created just for season ticket holders in the Royal Rooters Club, more varied concession options that appeal to the most discerning palates, and private spaces for mothers to nurse their infants.

In addition to the improved creature comforts, the club has provided fans with more free opportunities to visit Fenway Park outside of a game with the introduction of programs such as a "Father's Day Catch," a Mother's Day "Walk in the Park," days when "Kids Run the Bases," "Open Houses" to savor the ballpark, and when "Grandparents Walk the Bases." Families can trick or treat on Halloween, and celebrate Veterans Day, Thanksgiving, the holiday season, and Valentine's Day with a variety of events.

And it wouldn't be "America's Most Beloved Ballpark" without the poignant ceremonies that celebrate the important and meaningful connection between and the City of Boston and Fenway Park.

In a grand procession to celebrate the ballpark's 100th anniversary on April 20, 2012, the exact date of the first game at Fenway Park, more than 200 former Red Sox returned to their field, wearing the jerseys of their youth, one by one, to the strains of "Field of Dreams," "The Natural," and John Williams' "Jurassic Park." Maestro Williams was on hand in person to conduct the Boston Pops in the debut of "Fanfare for Fenway," his gift to the club and to the park. A Guinness World Record (32,904) toasted the park. And as her great-grandfather John F. Fitzgerald, the Mayor of Boston, had done 100 years before on the same date in the same place, Caroline Kennedy threw the Ceremonial First Pitch, together with Boston Mayor Thomas M. Menino and Thomas Fitzgerald, grandson of "Honey Fitz." The game would be the last ever attended together by Johnny Pesky and Bobby Doerr, who sat in the Legends Suite, watching the Boys of Summer that they were 70 years before.

In 2013, the Red Sox played a meaningful role after the Boston Marathon tragedy of April 15. At the team's next home game, Saturday, April 20, Boston's largest community convocation experienced a palpable sense of unity and resolve. The ceremony's final words came from an impassioned David Ortiz, whose spontaneous oratory will not be forgotten, though it may not necessarily be repeated word for word.

Throughout the season, the Red Sox welcomed heroes and wounded, families and friends, and attempted to provide communal comfort. It was an extraordinary demonstration of how a ballclub can interlock with the emotions of a strong, resilient community. Together, that passion took everyone back to the finish line of the Marathon on November 2, when Jonny Gomes and Jarrod Saltalamacchia placed the freshly won World Series Trophy on the site. They countered tragedy with triumph.

In 2014, April 20 was a special day for the third straight year. On the eve of Marathon Monday, ESPN televised Fenway's one-year tribute to those who had been affected. Fans in the park, in the nation, and around the world marveled at the demonstration of strength that had made "Boston Strong" part of the national vocabulary.

On the last day of the season, the Red Sox and their fans gave a tip of the cap and respectfully bade farewell to one of the greatest adversaries they had encountered, future Hall of Famer Derek Jeter.

Opening Day 2015 was one of the club's most remarkable. Fans anticipated and enjoyed a salute to the New England Patriots, who had just won their fourth Super Bowl.

But they did not expect the emotional moment when Jane Richard led her church's children's choir in the National Anthem, two years after losing her leg – and her brother Martin – in the Marathon tragedy.

Neither did they anticipate the final moment of the ceremonies, traditionally when someone says "Play Ball!" On this day, the club gave that honor to Pete Frates, the Boston College baseball star whose battle with ALS led him to help create the phenomenal "Ice-Bucket Challenge." What's more, then-General Manager Ben Cherington came out on the field and signed Frates to an authentic Red Sox baseball contract.

During the summer, the club presented a two-day tribute to new Hall of Famer Pedro Martinez. One day in English, one day in Spanish, both touching tributes to the extraordinary pitcher and extraordinary man.

The 2016 season was marked by two extraordinary events. In pregame ceremonies May 26th, Hall of Famer Wade Boggs became the ninth Red Sox player to have his number retired, a red No. 26 joining the others on the façade of the right-field grandstand. The final weekend of the 2016 season was devoted to a three-day celebration of the extraordinary career of Red Sox slugger David Ortiz, who received a $1 million gift from the Red Sox Foundation to his own foundation dedicated to critical pediatric care, and also was saluted by the city and state with the naming of a bridge and a street in his name.

From the first Father's Day Catch in 2002, through unifying convocations, to the celebration of careers, the Red Sox have turned Fenway Park into a place of warm, lasting memories – a place where dreams come true.

Commitment No. 4: Impacting the Lives of New Englanders through Our Community and Charitable Endeavors

The Red Sox, recognizing the place of prominence they have been given in the lives of so many New Englanders, have embraced their mission to positively impact the community that holds them so dear.

Immediately after completing the purchase of the club on February 27, 2002, the owners established the Red Sox Foundation, and committed to the Massachusetts Attorney General that they would infuse the foundation with at least $20 million over the next 10 years.

As it celebrates its 15th year, the Red Sox Foundation has not only met that expectation but exceeded it with well over $93 million to support organizations, and the operation of its own award-winning programs. In 2010, it received Major League Baseball's first-ever Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence for its Red Sox Scholars program, which provides college scholarships and care for academically-talented, financially-challenged middle school students.

It also received the 2009 Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and The Sports Philanthropy Project.

While the legendary relationship between the Red Sox and the Jimmy Fund is set to mark its 64-year partnership in 2017, the club's support has intensified with a variety of initiatives. In 2002, the Red Sox established the Jimmy Fund Radio-Telethon on WEEI and NESN. The annual fundraiser has generated more than $43 million for research, treatment, and care at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. The foundation also became a title sponsor of the Pan-Mass Challenge, the across-the-Commonwealth bike ride that has raised more than $547 million, including a record $47 million in 2016. Patients visit the Red Sox at Spring Training, on the road, and at Fenway, thanks to the generosity of retired radio-TV personality John Dennis; philanthropists such as Art Kelly; and Mike Gordon, President of Fenway Sports Group.

The relationship started anecdotally in 1947, when Ted Williams would visit patients on his way to the park. The Red Sox adopted the Jimmy Fund as their official charity in 1953, to continue the tradition established by the Boston Braves, who moved to Milwaukee. The 2013 season featured a year-long tribute that included the creation of the Jimmy Fund Chorus. In 2014, a Jimmy Fund Gallery was dedicated, and the relationship was proclaimed in signage on the outside of the building on Brookline Avenue.

In 2015 and 2016, Brock Holt and Pablo Sandoval were Jimmy Fund co-captains, visiting the clinic and lending their support to the cause. The entire team visited the Telethon set in August to take a photo with patients and show their support.

A signature effort made by the Red Sox is the Home Base Program, initiated by Red Sox Chairman Tom Werner and the Red Sox Foundation after visits to the Walter Reed Army Medical Center. In partnership with Massachusetts General Hospital, the program has provided treatment for post-traumatic stress and traumatic brain injuries to more than 9,000 New England veterans and their families. The foundation has donated over $20 million to the program, raising more than $14.5 million through its annual Run to Home Base.

The club's enhanced community relations outreach features appearances that foster player-fan interaction. Red Sox players on the 2016 team made 561 appearances arranged by the club, and former players made 275 more. These gestures – 836 in-person interactions – are in addition to many of the charitable efforts in which players engage independently.

Additionally, the Red Sox donated items and experiences to help 4,738 New England non-profits raise funds for their causes. The Red Sox Wives also consistently render services to the community via events that have generated record amounts of food for the hungry, funds to fight diseases, and awareness to help prevent the abuse of women.

The Sox continue to sponsor Ticket for Troops donations while also offering discounted tickets for active-duty, retired, and veteran service members. The Red Sox Foundation for the second year sponsored the IMPACT Awards Program (Inspiring More Philanthropy Across Charities Together), which provides Red Sox fans in the five New England states outside of Massachusetts with the opportunity to vote for their favorite local non-profits to decide which organizations will be awarded grants. More than $150,000 in grants have been awarded to those non-profits.

Commitment No. 5: Developing and Nurturing the Next Generation of Red Sox Fans

Perhaps more than any other sport, “America's Pastime” is a generational game. The future of the Red Sox franchise is tied to its ability to make the club and the game of baseball exciting for the kids of today and the parents of tomorrow. To that end, Red Sox ownership made growing the next generation of fans a central mission for the entire organization.

In 2016, the Red Sox continued to build out “Calling All Kids,” a series of programs to develop young fans with three primary goals: provide greater access to Red Sox games at Fenway Park; enhance the entertainment and customer experience for kids at the ballpark; and celebrate and strengthen the game of baseball in the community.

To improve access for young fans, the Red Sox introduced two new ticket programs: a $9 ticket for high school and college students beginning in 2014, and for those 14 and younger, a free ticket to a game as part of the free Kid Nation membership. In 2016, there were 70,167 kids enrolled in the program across each of the 50 states.

Perhaps the most visible symbol of the club's commitment to youth was the creation in 2014 of “Gate K (for Kids),” a children-friendly entrance located adjacent to Gate B leading into the new Kids Concourse. In addition to the gate, the right field area of the Big Concourse was revamped with games, entertainment, kids' concessions, and amenities, and “Wally's Clubhouse” was formed to serve as an outlet for young fans and families who need a break from the game. To help assist the parents and youngsters in this area, a “Kids Crew” was established, a group of gameday employees dedicated to serving the needs of families in the Kids Concourse and Wally's Clubhouse.

Proving to be a huge hit with our young fans was Tessie, Wally the Green Monster's sister, who was introduced in January, 2016. Tessie will be at all games at Fenway Park to entertain kids and be a permanent member of the Red Sox family.

To engage more children to play the game, the Red Sox have long been active in Major League Baseball's RBI Program. In 2002, the ownership group established an innovative program – the Boston Area Church League – with Mayor Thomas M. Menino, sponsors, civic leaders, and longtime civil rights activist Frank Jordan. Children play Saturday doubleheaders with pastors as coaches, police as umpires, and assistant district attorneys as volunteers. All enjoy a game at Fenway Park in September. Over the past 13 years, the RBI program has grown to 31 RBI teams (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) and Rookie Leagues serving more than 1,200 children.

In January, Mayor Walsh and the Red Sox Foundation unveiled the first of four indoor batting cages that will be installed in 2017 at Boston Centers for Youth & Families (BCYF) community centers throughout the City of Boston. The batting cage installations are made possible by a grant from Major League Baseball (MLB) and the Major League Baseball Players Association's (MLBPA) Youth Development Foundation, an organization set up in 2015 by the league and Players Association to improve the caliber, effectiveness, and availability of amateur baseball and softball programs across the United States and Canada.

The commitment to Little League baseball continued in 2016 when the Red Sox Foundation sponsored over 200 Massachusetts Little League teams. The club teamed up with Mayor Walsh and the Highland Street Foundation for the third year of “Out of the Park” and refurbished Noyes Park in East Boston and Peter's Park in the South End.

For the Red Sox, the inaugural “Calling All Kids” campaign was just the beginning. After all, when it comes to kids, you can never rest.

Red Sox in the Community

Celebrating its 15th anniversary of making a difference, the Red Sox Foundation has committed more than $93 million in charitable activity since its creation in 2002.

Led by the generosity of the Red Sox ownership group, the team and its charitable foundation are active throughout New England as well as in Lee County, Florida, the team's spring training home, with a focus on the areas of health, education, youth sports, veterans, and social services. The foundation has a number of major cornerstone programs and also provides smaller grants and other support to hundreds of other non-profits each year. Among the highlights last season was the $1 million grant given to David Ortiz's foundation for critical pediatric care by the Foundation and Red Sox partners in gratitude for his splendid years of service.

These efforts have made the Red Sox the most charitable organization in Major League Baseball and the most charitable sports franchise in New England.

The Personal Touch

Touching Lives, Face to Face

The team's commitment to the community was stronger than ever in 2016 – a joint effort of the team's community relations department and the Red Sox Foundation.

Red Sox players, coaches and manager John Farrell made 561 appearances arranged by the club, and former players made 275 more. These gestures – 836 in-person interactions – are in addition to many of the charitable efforts in which players engage independently. The community relations department helped 4,738 accredited non-profits raise funds and raise awareness of their worthy causes, often by donating signed items used by these organizations to raise money.

Seven Make-A-Wish children battling cancer and other life-threatening illnesses experienced far-fetched dreams come true in 2016 as they stepped on the field, sat in the dugout, and met the players they had only admired from afar.

Tim Wakefield, the Red Sox Foundation Honorary Chairman, was inducted into the club's Hall of Fame this summer, participated in numerous foundation activities throughout the year, including his third annual golf tournament to benefit the Red Sox Foundation.

For the second year, the Red Sox Foundation's IMPACT Awards Program (Inspiring More Philanthropy Across Charities Together) provided Red Sox fans in the five New England states outside of Massachusetts with the opportunity to vote for their favorite local non-profits to decide which organizations will be awarded grants. In that two-year span, the Foundation has donated $150,000 to those designated charities.

In spring training in Fort Myers, FL, players participated in the Children's Hospital golf tournament, signed autographs at the Open House at JetBlue Park, attended the Lee County Boys & Girls Club Dinner, and the Diamond Dinner benefitting the Children's Hospital of Southwest Florida. Players also participated in service days, visiting food banks, participating in a goodwill collection at JetBlue Park, and visiting Valerie's House, a place where grieving families can find comfort.

The team held its second "Girls of Summer" event where women learned fundamentals of the game from Red Sox coaches, got their photos taken with Red Sox players, and were addressed by members of the front office.

Dustin Pedroia, Hanley Ramirez and Pablo Sandoval, among others, all had ticket programs and purchased tickets for various groups to attend games at Fenway Park. Sandoval also served as Ambassador of the Foundation's RBI program, and adopted a group of RBI players (48) and 15 coaches during the holiday season, providing them with new sneakers and gift cards.

Red Sox pitcher Rick Porcello continued his work for Team Joseph, matching donations to a charity that supports children diagnosed with Duchenne, a form of muscular dystrophy.

During the holiday season, the players' caravan visited Codman Academy, Massachusetts General Hospital for Children, Shriner's Hospital, the Jimmy Fund clinic, Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, Boston Children's Hospital and The Base. Members of the Red Sox front office, meanwhile, "adopted" 115 kids in foster care via the Massachusetts Department of Children and Families, and Globe Santa partnered with the Foundation in collecting hats and mittens during Christmas at Fenway.

The Red Sox and the Jimmy Fund Teammates for Life

No cause is more deeply rooted in the fiber of the Red Sox than the fight against cancer. It was that way when Ted Williams would visit the young patients of legendary doctor Sidney Farber on his way to Fenway Park in the 1940's, it is that way today, and it will remain that way until cancer has been vanquished.

The enduring partnership between the Red Sox and the Jimmy Fund, which officially started in 1953, included last season the annual spring training visit by a host of Jimmy Fund kids, and more than $3.6 million raised during August's 15th Annual Red Sox Jimmy Fund Radio-Telethon on WEEI and NESN, bringing the total raised to over $43 million since the telethon's inception. The entire Red Sox team visited the set to take photos with patients and show their support. Over the years, the Red Sox have helped the Jimmy Fund raise more than $130 million for cancer treatment and research.

Brock Holt, who started games at five different positions and served as DH in another game last season, served again with Pablo Sandoval as the team's Jimmy Fund co-captains, and also was involved with the Foundation and MGH's Home Base Program. For the second successive year, Holt was the team's nominee for Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Award for humanitarian service.

Fighting the Battles That Matter on the Home Front

When the Red Sox went to Washington, D.C., in the aftermath of their World Series victories in 2004, 2007, and 2013, they did so at the invitation of the White House, Presidents Bush and Obama paying tribute to their success. The Sox appreciated the honor, but the trips to the nation's capital would take on a deeper and more lasting meaning, one inspired by their visits after each ceremony to the military personnel recovering from their wounds in the Walter Reed Army Medical Center and associated hospitals.

The Red Sox, to a man, were profoundly affected by the courageous men and women they met, and Chairman Tom Werner was moved to find a way that the ball club could make a positive impact on the lives of those who had given so much in service to their country. His vision, as Chairman of the Red Sox Foundation, inspired the club to partner with Massachusetts General Hospital to create the Home Base Program.

Along with the team's decades-long commitment to the Jimmy Fund, it has become a cornerstone of the team's community outreach, one that has provided an extraordinary support system to wounded veterans and their families.

The Home Base Program is the first partnership of its kind in the nation between an academic medical center and a Major League Baseball team. As a National Center of Excellence, Home Base operates the largest private-sector clinic in the nation devoted to healing invisible wounds such as post-traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injury. Since its inception, Home Base has served more than 9,000 veterans and family members with care and support, trained more than 25,000 clinicians, educators, and community members nationally, and remains at the forefront of discovering new treatments that offer great hope to our servicemen and women. Home Base launched a "first in the nation" two-week intensive clinical program for veterans that extends the reach of this program to any post-9/11 veteran in the United States. Over time it has expanded its clinical staff of doctors, psychologists, nurses, physical medicine and rehabilitation specialists and licensed clinical social workers to ensure that it maintains the world-class, evidence-based care for which it has become known.

The Red Sox Foundation to date has committed nearly $20 million to the program, raising more than $14.5 million through its annual Run to Home Base. The program remains deeply appreciative of the support offered by Gov. Charlie Baker and Boston Mayor Marty Walsh.

Red Sox Scholars Education for Life

The Red Sox Scholars Program, presented by Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, enhances the lives of Boston middle schoolers, who receive college scholarships of $10,000, as well as mentoring and enrichment opportunities. The program, created in 2003, received MLB's first-ever "Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence" in 2010. Since its inception, 262 academically talented, financially challenged Boston students have stepped onto the field at Fenway Park and felt the cheers of encouragement that we hope they will enjoy throughout their lives.

Beyond Boston, the Red Sox Foundation's New England Service Scholarship program provides college scholarships of $1,000 to nearly 145 graduating seniors in each of the other five New England states. The funding comes in part from unique Red Sox Foundation license plates in Connecticut and Rhode Island.

Youth Baseball Programs Play Ball for Life

RBI: On diamonds throughout Boston, more than 2,000 boys and girls aged 5 to 18 played baseball and softball in the Red Sox Foundation's RBI League. Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities, teaches baseball, sportsmanship, teamwork, and tolerance. The program is sponsored by Aramark, Bosox Club, JetBlue, Poland Spring and Neighborhood Health Plan.

BOSTON AREA CHURCH LEAGUE: For the 15th straight year, the Red Sox helped nurture the Boston Area Church League, which the club created with former Boston Mayor Thomas M. Menino on August 8, 2002. Children play Saturday double headers with pastors as coaches, police as umpires, and assistant district attorneys as volunteers. Several hundred children then enjoy a Red Sox game at Fenway Park, and relationships born on the ballfield translate into the neighborhoods.

RED SOX CHILDREN'S RETREATS: For the 14th straight year, the Red Sox helped operate Red Sox Children's Retreats at the Ron Burton Training Village in Hubbardston, Massachusetts. In a partnership announced December 13, 2002, shortly before the Boston Patriots' ailing football star passed away, his son and namesake, a longtime member of the Red Sox, brings children from neighborhoods long on asphalt and short on grass to weekends at the verdant camp created by this remarkable sports family. The children use the lure of sports to learn harmony, life skills, love, and fellowship.

LINDOS SUEÑOS: For the 13th straight year, the Red Sox also operated their Lindos Sueños Program, in which Boston-area teens travel to the Dominican Republic to play baseball and engage in community service projects with their teenage counterparts from the island. More than 100 Boston-area teens have participated. It is a remarkable experience to see how quickly socioeconomic backgrounds and different languages give way to unity through the language and heart of baseball.

ALL KIDS CAN: Hitting coaches Chili Davis and Victor Rodriguez taught baseball skills to physically challenged children at the "All Kids Can" clinics, sponsored by CVS.

MASSACHUSETTS LITTLE LEAGUE: For the third straight year, the Red Sox Foundation sponsored Little League teams throughout Massachusetts, providing support so that boys and girls can play ball and learn important life lessons. The initiative is presented by the Massachusetts Health Connector and supported by HP Hood.

The Red Sox and Dimock Simply Saving Lives

In the heart of the city, at the soul of its core, sits an institution that tackles the toughest issues. A caring lifeline for those who need it most, the Dimock Center provides health care, shelter, and security. The Red Sox Foundation has, for all 15 years, supported Dimock – its programs and services that include pediatric aids initiatives, after-school programs, behavioral health support, and GED preparation. John W. Henry – together with more than 170 baseball operations staff members and Aramark--have personally volunteered at this Roxbury institution.

Fenway Park

Major League Baseball's oldest and smallest ballpark, Fenway Park has been the home of the Boston Red Sox since April 20, 1912 when, after two days of rainouts, the park hosted its first regular season game, an 11-inning, 7-6 Boston win over the New York Highlanders in front of 27,000 fans.

In 105 seasons, venerable Fenway Park has been home to many of the greatest players in baseball history, including Hall of Famers Babe Ruth, Tris Speaker, Lefty Grove, Jimmie Foxx, Joe Cronin, Ted Williams, Bobby Doerr, Carl Yastrzemski, Carlton Fisk, and Jim Rice. The park has witnessed some of the most memorable moments in baseball history, highlighted, perhaps, by Fisk's 12th-inning home run to win Game 6 of the 1975 World Series, and the amazing comeback against the Yankees in Game 4 of the 2004 American League Championship Series.

Among the world's most famous sporting venues, Fenway Park is best known for the 37-foot high, 231-foot long "Green Monster" left-field wall, which looms only 310 feet from home plate. Equally enticing to hitters is "Pesky's Pole," the right-field foul pole named for Red Sox great Johnny Pesky, which stands only 302 feet from home plate.

Nestled into the Fenway Park neighborhood of Boston, the park was largely rebuilt for the 1934 season after a five-alarm fire destroyed construction underway by new owner Tom Yawkey. Fenway Park has undergone a series of improvements since the Henry-Werner Group purchased the team in 2002.

The astounding popularity of the ballpark and the team enabled the Red Sox to sell out 793 consecutive games from 2003-13, the longest recorded regular-season sellout streak in U.S. professional sports history. Hundreds of thousands of fans from all over the globe visit Fenway Park year-round. Tours of the ballpark, conducted in English, Spanish, and Japanese, are available daily.

The following pages provide a detailed timeline of Fenway Park since 1912.

RED SOX BASEBALL AT FENWAY

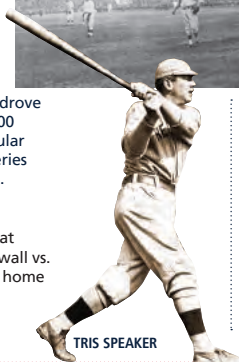

4.20.1912

Following an April 9 exhibition victory over Harvard and a pair of rainouts, the Red Sox won the first official game at Fenway, beating the New York Highlanders (who'd later become the Yankees) 7-6 in 11 innings. Tris Speaker drove home the game winner in front of 27,000 fans. The Red Sox go on to win 105 regular season games and capture the World Series during their first season at Fenway Park.

4.26.1912

1B Hugh Bradley hit the first home run at Fenway and the first over the left field wall vs. Philadelphia. It was the second and last home run of his Major League career.

The Red Sox clinched the 1918 World Series with a 2-1, Game Six victory over the Chicago Cubs. This was the last championship-clinching victory won by the Red Sox at Fenway Park until Game 6 of the 2013 Series.

6.12.1916

RHP George Foster threw the first no-hitter by a Red Sox pitcher at Fenway Park, leading the Red Sox to a 2-0 win over the New York Yankees. Fenway Park's first no-hitter was thrown by the Boston Braves' George Davis in a 7-0 victory over Philadelphia on September 9, 1914.

Boston Latin defeated Boston English 7-6 in Fenway Park's first high school football game. Two days later, Oak Park (IL) High School beat Everett (MA) High School 32-12 in the National High School Championship Game. Over the next few decades, several high school football games were played at the park.

Boston College and Norwich University competed in Fenway Park's first college football game with BC winning 28-6. The Eagles used the park as a frequent home venue through the 1950s.

In memory of American military members killed in the Spanish-American War, a memorial service was held at Fenway Park with 15,000 in attendance. A memorial service was regularly held at the park over the next few decades.

FENWAY PARK CONSTRUCTION

Representing his family, John Taylor announced their intention to build Fenway Park. Prior to the 1912 season, the Red Sox played their home games at the Huntington Avenue Grounds, now part of the campus of Northeastern University.

9.24.1911

The groundbreaking occurred for the new ballpark.

5.8.1926

In the first Fenway Park fire, the bleachers along the left-field foul line burned down and were not replaced, giving fielders the chance to snare foul flies behind the third base grandstand.

1918

7.3.1932

The Sox were hammered by the Yankees 13-2 in the first Sunday game at Fenway Park. Sunday baseball was approved in Boston three years earlier, but not at Fenway due to its proximity to a church. The Sox played their Sunday games at Braves Field on Commonwealth Avenue until the law was changed. They actually played the first Boston Sunday game, a 7-3 loss to Philadelphia, at Braves Field, April 28, 1929 in front of 22,000 fans.

TED WILLIAMS

11.14.25

Boston University played its first football game at Fenway Park, a 14-6 victory over Providence College. BU played occasional home games at Fenway Park through the mid-20th century.

1941

1.5.1934

A five-alarm, four-hour blaze, the second Fenway Park fire, virtually destroyed the construction underway by new owner Thomas A. Yawkey to refurbish the park. Following the fire, construction began on a new left-field grandstand, the bleachers, and the new left field wall.

1936

A 23-foot tall screen was installed above the left field wall. The screen would remain until the Green Monster Seats were constructed in 2003.

9.22.1935

The largest crowd to ever see a game at Fenway Park – 47,627 – turned out for a doubleheader with the Yankees. Crowds of this size will never be equaled under Fenway Park's current dimensions. More stringent fire laws and league rules after World War II prohibited overcrowding that was permitted in the 1930's.

1940

Bullpens were constructed in front of the bleachers replacing the old bullpen areas in the outfield foul territory beyond the dugouts. Tom Yawkey replaced the right field pavilion section he built in 1934 with an extension of the grandstand, reducing the distance to the right field foul pole to 302 feet.

RED SOX BASEBALL AT FENWAY

Ted Williams hit a monumental 502-foot home run to right field off Detroit right-hander Fred Hutchinson. The ball landed on top of the straw hat of Joseph A. Boucher, a 56-year-old construction engineer from Albany, NY who was sitting in Section 42, Row 37, Seat 21. "The sun was right in our eyes," he said. "All we could do was duck. I'm glad I didn't stand up. They say it bounced a dozen rows higher, but after it hit my head, I was no longer interested." At that time the bleachers were actual bleachers and not individual seats.

The Red Sox hosted their first All-Star Game at Fenway Park, a 12-0 American League win. Eight Red Sox were on the All-Star team, but Ted Williams stole the show, going 4-for-4 with two homers, a walk, five RBI and four runs scored.

Cleveland went on to beat the Boston Braves 4-2 in the World Series.

The defending champions received their World Series rings prior to the home opener against the Yankees. Led by Johnny Pesky and Carl Yastrzemski, former players who had longed for such a day helped the active players raise the World Championship flag. James Taylor sang "America the Beautiful," the Boston Symphony and Boston Pops played "The Star-Spangled Banner," and wounded soldiers back from war presented the rings. In perhaps the highest-attended event in Fenway Park history, the Red Sox welcomed nearly 55,000 fans to the storied ballpark for a free Open House on the eve of its official centennial.

Jon Lester threw the first no-hitter of 2008 in a 7-0 win vs. Kansas City. He became the fourth lefty ever to throw a no-hitter at Fenway Park.

4.20.2012

Over 200 Red Sox alumni returned to Fenway Park 100 years to the date of first Red Sox game at the ballpark. This reunion served as a major highlight of the season-long, 100th Anniversary celebration of Fenway Park. The Red Sox and Yankees battled it out in throwback uniforms, a reenactment of the franchise's Fenway opener in 1912.

4.20.2013

In an emotional day at Fenway Park and throughout the City of Boston, the Red Sox played their first home game following the tragic events at the Boston Marathon five days earlier. An emotional David Ortiz proclaimed during pre-game ceremonies that "This is our...city," and Daniel Nava hit a go-ahead homer in the bottom of the eighth inning, leading the Red Sox to a 4-3 victory over the Royals.

10.30.2013

Boston's 6-1 win over St. Louis in Game 6 secured the franchise's eighth World Series title, and third in ten years. It was the Red Sox' first clinching World Series win at Fenway Park since the 1918 team won it all 95 years prior.

10.10.2016

Boston's season ended with a 4-3 loss to Cleveland in the ALDS, but the largest postseason crowd in Fenway's history (39,530) stayed long after the final out to give David Ortiz a proper sendoff in his final game as a player. Big Papi emerged from the clubhouse, walked to the pitcher's mound and saluted the crowd, unable to hold back tears as he showed his appreciation.

An ice rink once again topped the Fenway Park tundra as several college and high school teams played at "Frozen Fenway," while open-public skating was also offered to Boston residents. "Frozen Fenway" returned during Winter 2013-14 and 2016-17.

7.25.2012

Soccer fans from around the world turned out for a pre-season friendly at Fenway Park between Liverpool F.C. and A.S. Roma, with Roma ultimately prevailing by a 2-1 score. Roma won again, 1-0, when Fenway Park hosted a rematch on July 23, 2014.

FALL 2015

Fenway Park donned football goalposts for the first time since 1968, playing host to the Shamrock Series, a 19-16 Notre Dame win over Boston College, as well as Thanksgiving high school games. The same week, Galway defeated Dublin in the first hurling match at Fenway since 1954.

WINTER 2016

An incredible 140-foot snow ramp, taller than the light towers, stood as the centerpiece of "Big Air at Fenway," a two-day snowboarding and freeskiiing event.

WINTER 2017

In January 2017, "Frozen Fenway" featured 8 collegiate hockey games, 7 high school games, and public skating opportunities. The ballpark also hosted "Frozen Fenway Winter Party On Ice" featuring internationally known figure skaters and performers.

2012

"Fenway Park: A Living Museum," a collection of 100 plaques, historical markers, and displays debuted throughout the ballpark in early 2012, as part of an effort to help educate guests about Fenway's wide-ranging history.

3.25.2005

The Red Sox announced a long-term commitment to remain at Fenway Park, "America's Most Beloved Ballpark," and the oldest park in the Major Leagues. A comprehensive plan for a complete renovation was submitted to the City of Boston Landmarks Commission, the Massachusetts Historic Commission and the National Park Service.

2016

The State Street Pavilion level was extended to accommodate 265 new seats in the Right Field Pavilion Reserved and Left Field Pavilion Reserved sections.

INSTALLING DUGOUT SEATS

2017

The Red Sox made several new improvements for the 2017 season, including the addition of two rows of dugout seats, a right-field grandstand bar, a new video board on the right-field roof deck, four new suites in the State Street Pavilion, the restoration of Pesky Pole, and a removable bullpen wall that will allow Fenway to better adapt to non-baseball events.

Red Sox Ownership

John W. Henry, Principal Owner

John W. Henry is beginning his 16th season as Principal Owner of the Boston Red Sox, but in one way his relationship to baseball has changed little since he was growing up in rural Arkansas, listening to games broadcast on a Zenith short-wave radio. "I certainly identify with the fans," he said, "because I've been one my entire life." And from December 20, 2001, the day an investment group led by Mr. Henry, Tom Werner and Larry Lucchino bought the Red Sox, he understood the mandate he had inherited.

"Win a World Series? That's not my choice, it's my role, it's my obligation to New England," Mr. Henry said. "That's what I've been charged with. When you bid on the Red Sox, the challenge you're undertaking is nothing short of winning the World Series."

Three World Series titles in a 10-season span – 2004, 2007, and 2013 – have earned the Henry-Werner ownership team a special place in Red Sox history, the franchise having endured an 86-year stretch, beginning in 1918, in which it did not win baseball's ultimate prize. But the quest continues, the team's success only reinforcing Mr. Henry's determination that the Red Sox remain a perennial contender, with the goal of playing meaningful games in October.

In one sense, Mr. Henry says, he is owner by proxy. The true owners, he asserts, are Red Sox fans, those in New England and spread across the country and globally in numbers deserving of the designation, "Red Sox Nation." He sees his role as being a steward of this much-loved baseball team, which entails providing a championship-caliber product on the field while also serving as an involved and committed member of the community.

By any measure, the Red Sox have succeeded on both fronts. The club's winning percentage of .551 ranks third in Major League Baseball since the start of the 2002 season, and the Red Sox have won more postseason games (45) than any American League team in that span. That includes what many regard as the most improbable comeback in professional sports, when the Red Sox lost the first three games of the American League Championship Series in 2004 to the New York Yankees, then won the next four games, becoming the first major league team ever to win a series after trailing, three games to none.

Immediately after taking ownership, Mr. Henry and his partners also founded – and funded – the Red Sox Foundation, which has become the largest and one of the fastest-growing team charities in Major League Baseball. Though a relative newcomer to the New England philanthropic community, it has won numerous awards for its imaginative outreach and impact, including the 2009 national award for "Best Sports Charity" from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and the Sports Philanthropy Project. In 2010 it was recognized by Major League Baseball with the inaugural "Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence" for the Red Sox Scholars program, the foundation's educational cornerstone. Supported through generous donations from Mr. Henry and Mr. Werner and their partners, as well as corporate sponsors and fans attending fund-raising events, the Red Sox Foundation has made a significant impact on the lives of those it serves. To date, it has committed more than $93 million to health, education, recreation, military, and social service programs primarily benefitting at-risk children and families.

The operation of the club always has been, and will continue to be, a collaborative effort, Mr. Henry maintains. He cites the close relationships he enjoys with Werner, the team's chairman; Larry Lucchino, who was the team's president and CEO for the first 14 seasons; Sam Kennedy, who has succeeded Lucchino as club president; and David Dombrowski, who was appointed the President of Baseball Operations in August 2015.

"Tom Werner and I are like brothers," Mr. Henry says. "We talk every day about ideas on how to improve everything from the New England Sports Network to the length of the grass on the field."

With Lucchino, whom Mr. Henry described as "my role model when it comes to baseball executives," moving into an emeritus role, Kennedy became president on October 16, 2015.

"Since 2012, we have known that it would be a natural transition for Sam to succeed Larry when he was ready to relinquish the reins," Mr. Henry said. "Tom and I feel fortunate that there is an obvious and strong successor within our organization." With Dombrowski's appointment on August 18, 2015, Mr. Henry renewed a relationship that has its roots in Florida, where Dombrowski served as general manager when Mr. Henry owned the Florida Marlins.

"I have known Dave very well for a long time," Mr. Henry said. "Tom and I have no doubts that Dave is the right person to strengthen our baseball operations group going forward."

Mr. Henry has garnered a wealth of experience – and multiple championship rings – at three different levels in his 29 years in baseball at an ownership level. Prior to purchasing the Red Sox, he was chairman and sole owner of the Marlins. He also was a limited partner of the New York Yankees, and chairman and majority owner of the Tucson Toros of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League. Mr. Henry also formed a co-ownership with Boca Raton, FL attorney Don Sider in the West Palm Beach Tropics of the Senior Professional Baseball League. The Tropics, managed by former Red Sox manager Dick Williams, posted a league-best 52-20 record in his one-year ownership, led by Hall of Famer Rollie Fingers and All-Stars Toby Harrah, Dave Kingman, Mickey Rivers, and Al Hrabosky.

A pioneering trader of commodities futures, for more than 35 years Mr. Henry has served as chairman of John W. Henry & Company, Inc., which he founded in 1981. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Future Industry Association, National Association of Futures Trading Advisors and the Managed Futures Trade Association. He was elected to the Futures Industry Association's Hall of Fame as a recognized leader in alternative asset financial product innovation. Mr. Henry is Principal Owner of Fenway Sports Group, formerly New England Sports Ventures (NESV). On October 15, 2010, Fenway Sports Group acquired 100% of Liverpool Football Club (LFC), one of the world's most historic sporting institutions. Fenway Sports Group owns a portfolio of companies that includes LFC, the Boston Red Sox, New England Sports Network, Fenway Sports Management, and Roush Fenway Racing. In October 2013, Mr. Henry purchased the Boston Globe. With the purchase, Mr. Henry became the third owner in the history of the Boston Globe, which is the largest newspaper in New England. In January 2014, Mr. Henry became the ninth publisher of the Boston Globe.

Born in Quincy, Illinois, Mr. Henry spent most of his childhood on the family farm in Forrest City, Arkansas, where his father raised soybeans, corn and wheat. A Cardinals fan who grew up listening to Harry Caray, Jack Buck and Joe Garagiola on the radio, Mr. Henry was 9 when he saw his first major league game at Sportsman's Park in St. Louis – the very city where he would see his own Boston Red Sox win the World Series in 2004.

"I love to listen to and interact with fans," Mr. Henry said.

"Perhaps not every fan can identify with me, but I think I can identify with most of them because I've been a passionate baseball fan all my life. I know that even the best baseball team cannot win every night, but I want to make sure our fans win every night – that they enjoy as many aspects of our game, our tradition, and the Fenway experience as they can. If they don't, I want to know why and see what I can do to address their concerns immediately. It is the New England fans and their representative media that have created the romance, mystique, and passion that we all feel when the words 'Boston Red Sox' are spoken."

Ownership, Continued

Thomas C. Werner, Chairman

Red Sox chairman Tom Werner, who has been involved in Major League Baseball for more than 26 years and whose love for the Red Sox spans nearly five decades, has played a vital role in the team's success on the field, the saving and renovating of Fenway Park, and its difference-making impact in the community. The respect Werner has engendered among his fellow owners was reflected in 2015, when he was nominated to be Commissioner of Baseball, his ideas for growing the game widely praised.

A highly successful television executive, Werner entered baseball as leader of the ownership group that purchased the San Diego Padres in 1990, and served as majority owner until December 22, 1994. Werner subsequently joined forces with Principal Owner John W. Henry and President/CEO Larry Lucchino to acquire the Red Sox, the only bidders that made saving Fenway Park a cornerstone of their proposal. Together, they and their partners won the right to buy the team on December 20, 2001 and completed the purchase on February 27, 2002. Three years later, after substantial improvements to the ballpark, Werner, Henry, and Lucchino on March 23, 2005 pledged their long-term commitment to Fenway Park, inspiring major investment in the surrounding neighborhood and sparking a remarkable transformation. Because of their vision, Fenway Park in 2012 became the first ballpark to celebrate its 100th anniversary, and with nearly $300 million in renovations, its viability as "America's Most Beloved Ballpark" has been assured for years to come.

On October 30, 2013, the Red Sox won their third World Series title since Werner became chairman, the first in 95 years in which the clinching game was played at Fenway Park.

The team's on-field success has been accompanied by its determination to play a meaningful role in the community. Werner was instrumental in establishing and overseeing the Red Sox Foundation, which to date has committed more than $93 million to benefit the people of New England and is recognized as a model program for charitable organizations. A particular point of pride is the Home Base Program. Inspired by the team's visits to Walter Reed Medical Center as an adjunct to their World Series ceremonies in the White House, Werner helped create Home Base, which is a partnership between the Red Sox Foundation and Massachusetts General Hospital. The Home Base Program heals the less-visible wounds of war by connecting Iraq and Afghanistan veterans and their families to world-class care. Home Base has provided care and support for over 1,000 veterans, trained over 10,000 clinicians, and conducts research to treat, diagnose, and prevent post-traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injuries.

Because of his leadership with the foundation and the Home Base Program, Werner was honored with the United States Army's Outstanding Civilian Service Award on October 30, 2014.

The Red Sox Foundation also is a major benefactor of the Jimmy Fund, whose legendary partnership with the Red Sox celebrated its 60th anniversary in 2013. Under the current ownership group, the club created the annual Red Sox/Jimmy Fund radio telethon on WEEI and NESN, which has raised over $43 million since its inception, and launched title sponsorship of the Pan-Mass Challenge.

Like so many Red Sox fans of his generation, Werner's infatuation with the Red Sox began in 1967, when as a freshman at Harvard, the New York native was caught up in the team's "Impossible Dream" journey to the World Series. He fell hard, both for the Red Sox, and Fenway Park. For his Visual Studies class at Harvard, he created a documentary about Fenway, a project that presaged a phenomenally successful career that has included his enshrinement in the Television Academy Hall of Fame. Embodying the values of integrity and quality, Werner and his partner, Marcy Carsey, have helped create such popular series as "The Cosby Show," "A Different World," "Roseanne," "Third Rock From the Sun," "Cybill," "Grace Under Fire," and "That '70s Show." The Carsey-Werner partnership is widely regarded as the most successful independent television production company in the history of the medium. Before starting Carsey-Werner, which is credited with almost 2,000 hours of quality television, the duo worked for ABC television when they discovered Robin Williams in a comedy club and launched his career in "Mork and Mindy."

Werner and Carsey launched the careers of such talent as Tom Hanks ("Bosom Buddies"), Billy Crystal ("Soap"), and Danny Devito ("Taxi"). Werner currently is producing "Survivors Remorse," the critically acclaimed hit airing on the Starz network, a venture in which he has partnered with NBA superstar LeBron James.

In addition to his membership in the Television Academy Hall of Fame, Werner (born April 12, 1950) received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Producers Guild of America. His company has earned 24 Emmy Awards, 11 People's Choice Awards, and numerous Golden Globes, Humanitas Prizes, and Peabody Awards. In 2000, Werner, Carsey, and their partner Caryn Mandabach joined forces with Geraldine Laybourne and Oprah Winfrey to start Oxygen, a 24-hour cable channel serving the modern woman.

Since 2001, when Werner and his partners purchased the Red Sox, Fenway Park, and 80% of the New England Sports Network, NESN has become a highly acclaimed model for regional sports networks throughout the country, the first to broadcast MLB games in high definition. NESN is consistently the highest rated basic cable network in New England, and from April to October 2016 it was the highest overall rated network, including broadcast.

Werner has long immersed himself in the work of Major League Baseball, when he was with the Padres he was a member of Executive Council, and was a leader in the establishment of the Wild Card, of which the 2004 Red Sox club was an historic beneficiary. Werner, in his capacity at the Red Sox, presently serves on Major League Baseball's Business and Media Board and the Competition Committee Board.

In January, 2013, for his leadership and dedication to the game, Werner received the Dave Winfield Humanitarian Award from the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation at the organization's annual "In the Spirit of the Game" Sports and Entertainment Spectacular. Werner spends much of the year in Boston, where he has a residence. He has served on many boards, including the White House Fellows Commission and the Ron Brown Scholar Program. He currently serves on the Crossroads School Board and the Board for After School All Stars, a program helping more than 92,000 at-risk youth engage in after school activities.

David Ginsberg, Vice Chairman

Mr. Ginsberg became Vice Chairman of the Red Sox upon the club's acquisition on February 27, 2002. Club Executives

Sam Kennedy, President

Sam Kennedy became the 12th President of the Boston Red Sox on October 16, 2015, succeeding President/CEO emeritus Larry Lucchino. As President, Kennedy has oversight over the club and its operations. In addition to his Red Sox role, Kennedy is also President of Fenway Sports Management (FSM).

A native of Brookline, MA, who grew up within walking distance of Fenway Park, Kennedy, 44, joined the Red Sox as Vice President of Corporate Partnerships in 2002. He was among the first wave of executives the current ownership group brought to Boston from the San Diego Padres, where Kennedy had worked the previous six years. Kennedy immediately distinguished himself, playing a key role in the revitalization of the Red Sox brand and the dramatic growth of the team's financial base through the creation of new revenue streams. Kennedy was also intimately involved in the preservation and transformation of Fenway Park and the transformation of the ballpark experience.

Prior to assuming the role of club President, Kennedy served as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer from September 2009 to October 2015. While in that post, he oversaw the team's general business matters including ticketing (sales, operations and service), corporate sponsorship, broadcasting, marketing, social media, advertising, Fenway Enterprises (non-baseball activities at Fenway Park), and all client services.

One of Kennedy's proudest accomplishments is the wide range of fans that have experienced Fenway Park's unique charm due to the expansion of entertainment offerings at the ballpark including concerts, ice hockey games, and soccer matches featuring the iconic Liverpool Football Club. The 2015 Winter Season at Fenway Park epitomized the possibilities for the 105-year-old ballpark. The "off-season" started in November when Fenway Park played host to the "Shamrock Series," a college football game between the University of Notre Dame and Boston College, and culminated in February with "Big Air," a ski and snowboarding spectacle featuring a 140-foot ramp that loomed high above the ballpark's light towers. In between those events, the Winter Season featured four traditional Thanksgiving High School Football games and brought the Irish sport of hurling to Fenway for the first time in over 60 years.

In 2004, Kennedy helped create Fenway Sports Management, formerly Fenway Sports Group, which has emerged as one of the most well respected international sports sales and representation agencies in its 11-year history. FSM is one of the portfolio of companies owned by Fenway Sports Group, which includes the Boston Red Sox, Liverpool Football Club (LFC), an 80% stake in the New England Sports Network (NESN), and 50% of Roush Fenway Racing (RFR). As FSM's President, Kennedy oversees all aspects of the operations featuring a client roster that includes the Red Sox, LFC, NESN, RFR, Boston College, Major League Baseball Advanced Media, the Deutsche Bank Championship, and NBA superstar LeBron James.

Kennedy, who was classmates at Brookline High School with former Red Sox General Manager and current Chicago Cubs President of Baseball Operations Theo Epstein, began his career in baseball in 1993, when he was an intern in the ticket department of the New York Yankees. In 1996, he was hired by his mentor, Larry Lucchino, at the San Diego Padres. As the Padres Executive Director/Corporate Partnerships and Broadcasting, he tripled sponsorship revenues in a six-year span. Kennedy also played an integral role in securing financing and developing the sales and marketing strategy for Petco Park, the Padres' downtown ballpark.

In October 2007, Kennedy was named one of the Boston Business Journal's 40 under 40 Award recipients, which recognizes 40 of Boston's best and brightest young professionals. In 2008, 2010, and 2013, Kennedy was selected as one of Sports Business Journal's Forty under 40 Award recipients and inducted into the publication's Hall of Fame. This national honor placed him in the company of the most influential and creative young professionals in the business of sports.

Kennedy serves on the MLB International Committee, and the boards of the BIDMC Trustee/Advisory Board/BIDMC Marketing Committee; the Trinity Board of Fellows; the Dana-Farber Visiting Committee for Institute Initiatives; and the Camp Harbor View Board of Directors.

A former captain of the baseball team at Brookline High and member of the ice hockey team, Kennedy graduated from Trinity College (CT) in 1995. Kennedy currently serves on the board of the Wellesley Youth Hockey Association and The Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce. Kennedy also has served as a volunteer hockey coach for the past nine years.

Kennedy and his wife of 19 years, Amanda, reside in Wellesley, MA, with their 14-year-old son, Jimmy, and 12-year old daughter, Ally.

David Dombrowski, President of Baseball Operations

David Dombrowski was named as President of Baseball Operations for the Boston Red Sox on August 18, 2015. In this role, newly created by the organization – he is responsible for all baseball matters for the club.

A distinguished and experienced baseball executive, Dombrowski enters his 40th year in Major League Baseball in 2017.

In his first full season with the Red Sox, Dombrowski's club posted a 93-69 (.574) record to capture the organization's eighth American League East Division title. This fall marks the seventh time one of his teams qualified for the postseason, and the fifth as a division champion.

Prior to Dombrowski's arrival in Boston, he served as President, CEO & General Manager of the Detroit Tigers from November 5, 2001 until August 4, 2015. During his tenure in Detroit, which spanned 14 seasons, his teams reached the Postseason five times: first as the American League Wild Card winner in 2006, which snapped an 18-year playoff drought for the organization, and again with a franchise-record four consecutive AL Central Division titles from 2011-14. Detroit captured the AL pennant twice in that time frame, in 2006 and in 2012, with the former marking the team's first trip to the World Series since 1984. His 2013 club was eliminated by the Red Sox in a thrilling six-game league championship series.

Before landing with the Marlins, Dombrowski served the Montreal Expos for parts of five years (December 1986-September 1991) in a variety of front office roles including Director of the club's minor league system, Assistant General Manager, Vice President of Player Personnel, and General Manager. He was 32 years old at the time of his appointment to General Manager prior to the 1990 season, the youngest chief baseball official in the major leagues at the time. Following the 1990 season, he was recognized as the UPI Major League Executive of the Year, and Baseball America acknowledged the Expos as Organization of the Year in both 1988 and 1990.

It was with the Chicago White Sox that Dombrowski received his first baseball experience in 1978 under the tutelage of long-time baseball executive Roland Hemond. Dombrowski spent four seasons working in the scouting and player development departments of the White Sox before being named Assistant General Manager under Hemond in November 1981. He eventually was named Vice President of Baseball Operations for the club in December of 1985.

In addition to his extensive accomplishments relating to on-field baseball performance, Dombrowski has also been involved in areas off the field around the game. In April of 2013, former Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig named him chairman of the Commissioner's On-Field Diversity Task Force, which addresses the talent pipeline that impacts the representation and development of diverse players and on-field personnel in Major League Baseball, particularly African-Americans. While with the Tigers, also in 2013, he accepted the Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence on behalf of the club for their Anti-Bullying community program.

Throughout his career, Dombrowski has received numerous awards for his achievements in baseball. Among them are the 2012 John Schuerholz Award given at that year's General Managers meetings honoring 25 years of service as a GM. He was a co-recipient of The Sporting News' Executive of the Year Award with Milwaukee Brewers GM Doug Melvin in 2011 and received the Andrew "Rube" Foster Award the same year presented by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum as AL Executive of the Year. He was named Executive of the Year in 2006 by Baseball America, and Sports Executive of the Year at the 10th annual March of Dimes National Athletic Awards dinner in February 1998.

In January 2012, he was inducted into the Lou Boudreau Hall of Fame by the Pitch & Hit Club of Chicago.

A native of Chicago, IL, Dombrowski is a graduate of Richards High School in Oak Lawn, IL. He attended Cornell University – where he played football – for one year, but later transferred to Western Michigan University where he earned a degree in business administration in 1979. His alma mater recognized him with its Distinguished Alumni Award in 1998.

Dombrowski and his wife, Karie, live in suburban Boston with their daughter, Darbi, and son, Landon.

Larry Lucchino, President/CEO Emeritus

Red Sox Hall of Famer Larry Lucchino served as President/CEO during an historic 14-year period through 2015, in which the club won three World Series, saved and enhanced Fenway Park, established the Major League Baseball record for consecutive sellouts, and created the Red Sox Foundation, a philanthropic powerhouse. Now also Chairman of the Pawtucket Red Sox, Lucchino and the late Jim Skeffington assembled a group that in 2015 purchased Boston's longtime Triple-A affiliate. He is also Chairman of the Jimmy Fund, the philanthropic arm of the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, which twice helped to save his life.

After serving as the President of the Baltimore Orioles (1988-93) and the President and CEO of the San Diego Padres (1995-01), Lucchino was instrumental in bringing together Principal Owner John W. Henry, Chairman Tom Werner, and their partners, who purchased the Red Sox, Fenway Park, and 80 percent of NESN in December, 2001.

Committing to "field a team worthy of the fans' support," the Red Sox in his tenure played October Baseball seven times in 14 years. Vanquishing the proverbial "Curse of the Bambino," the 2004 club did what had never been done before—overcoming a 3-0 deficit, against no less than the archrival New York Yankees, whom Lucchino dubbed "the Evil Empire,"—to win the pennant and then sweep the St. Louis Cardinals to win the club's first World Series since 1918—after an agonizing 86-year wait. The World Champions of 2007 and 2013 also etched in stone this historic era, with the latter club helping to heal a wounded city after the Boston Marathon bombings to embody the strength and resilience that supported the new phrase, "Boston Strong."

After revolutionizing ballpark ambiance and architecture by creating Oriole Park at Camden Yards, which fulfilled his pioneering vision of a traditional, intimate, old-fashioned downtown ballpark with modern amenities, Lucchino then spearheaded the political and design efforts that created Petco Park in San Diego. More than a ballpark, Petco fulfilled its promise as a catalyst for redevelopment in downtown San Diego.

With the experience of Camden Yards and Petco Park, he was instrumental in conceiving and executing ten years of major improvements to Fenway Park that preserved, protected, and enhanced "America's Most Beloved Ballpark." Once again, a ballpark revitalized a now-vibrant neighborhood.

With aggressive marketing throughout New England and the global fan base called "Red Sox Nation," the club connected with its fans, who sold out every game (820 straight) from May 15, 2003 through April 8, 2013. The club set franchise attendance records in eight of his 14 seasons.

Lucchino has served on several MLB committees, including the Commissioner's historic Blue Ribbon Task Force on Baseball Economics, which successfully re-engineered the sport's economic structure, and the International Committee, of which he has been one of its most active members.

Saying his franchises "had a foreign policy," Lucchino arranged for his Padres to play baseball's first regular season games in Mexico (1996) and Hawaii (1997) and pioneered a ground-breaking relationship in Japan with the Chiba Lotte Marines (1997). Returning to Mexico in 1999, he helped establish baseball's first International Opener in Monterrey. In 2008, he led the Red Sox' first trip to Japan, where they opened the season. Lucchino was also an early and active supporter of the World Baseball Classic.

Born in Pittsburgh, Lucchino was an All-City League basketball player and second baseman on the Pittsburgh city championship baseball team. He graduated with honors from Princeton University and then graduated from Yale Law School. At Princeton, he was a member of two Ivy League championship basketball teams. Lucchino holds honorary degrees from Suffolk University, Boston University, Bryant University, New England School of Law, Anna Maria College, Palomar College, the University of Massachusetts (Boston), and Bentley University.

In 1974, he joined Williams and Connolly, the law firm founded by his mentor, friend, legendary sportsman, and trial attorney Edward Bennett Williams. He became a partner in 1978 and specialized in sports law and litigation. He was general counsel to the Washington Redskins, of which Williams was president and part owner, and was a member of their Board of Directors from 1979 to 1985. When EBW bought the Orioles on August 2, 1979, Lucchino entered baseball and became the club's vice president/general counsel. EBW named him president in May 1988, to rebuild the club's baseball and business operations. Lucchino was President (and co-owner) of the Orioles from 1989 until the club was sold at the end of the 1993 season. In December, 1994, he partnered with John Moores to purchase the San Diego Padres, for whom he served as President/CEO through 2001.

The avid sportsman has the unique distinction of earning World Series rings (Orioles, '83; Red Sox, '04, '07, '13), a Super Bowl ring (Redskins, '83), and a Final Four watch (Princeton, '65). Lucchino has been active in numerous civic and charitable efforts, particularly in the research and treatment of cancer. He is a board member and served as the co-chair of the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute's $1 billion "Mission Possible" Capital Campaign, which reached its goal in 2009, and is on the board of Special Olympics International.

In recognition for "long and meritorious service to baseball" over three decades in the game, Lucchino received the Judge Emil Fuchs Award from the Boston chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America at their 72nd annual awards dinner in January 2011. Lucchino was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in May 2012, the National Italian-American Sports Hall of Fame and the Taylor Allderice High School Hall of Fame in November 2013, and was inducted into the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame in May 2016.

Jonathan Gilula, Executive Vice President/Business Affairs

Jonathan Gilula has served as Executive Vice President/Business Affairs since October 2009. In 2017, Gilula enters his 20th season in Major League Baseball and 15th as a member of the Boston Red Sox organization. Gilula oversees all business operations for the club including: ballpark operations, event operations, fan services, game entertainment, video production, information technology, special events, and Florida business operations. He also manages the relationships between the Red Sox and important business partners, such as Aramark, Fenway Park's concessionaire, and Twins '47, the operator of the Official Red Sox Team Stores.

Gilula has played a key management role in the club's effort to preserve and protect Fenway Park, which celebrated its 100th Anniversary in 2012. During the 10-year major annual improvement process that began in 2002 and was formally completed in 2011, the team added capacity, created space for new fan-friendly features and amenities, and improved the infrastructure both within and around the ballpark. Such projects include the Green Monster Seats, the Right Field Roof, the EMC and State Street Pavilion levels, and the installation of state-of-the-art high definition video displays and scoring systems.

Gilula also assumes a lead role in coordinating the club's real estate activities, which have focused on ensuring that development activities in the surrounding Fenway neighborhood are complementary to the ballpark. To that end, he has negotiated agreements that have resulted in the addition of popular year-round restaurants such as Game On!, the Bleacher Bar and Tony C's Sports Bar & Grill.

Gilula is an active participant in the planning and implementation of non-traditional, ancillary uses of Fenway Park that have resulted in a series of popular and historic events over the past 15 years. Such events have included: a schedule of sold-out annual summer concerts, including a record number of 11 total shows held in 2016 that featured Dead and Company, Paul McCartney, James Taylor, Pearl Jam, Billy Joel, Zac Brown Band and Jason Aldean; several outdoor ice hockey games highlighted by the 2010 Bridgestone NHL Winter Classic and four series of Frozen Fenway college games played in 2010, 2012, 2014 and 2017; and world class soccer with three exhibition games since 2010, the most recent of which a sold out match between internationally renowned Liverpool Football Club and A.S. Roma in July, 2014. During the 2015-2016 off-season Gilula played a vital role in the preparation and execution of three very distinctive events at Fenway Park. On November 21, 2015, Notre Dame played Boston College in Notre Dame's annual Shamrock Series football game in front of a sell-out crowd, the first football game played at Fenway Park since 1968. One day later the classic Irish game of hurling made a triumphant return to Fenway Park after more than 60 years as the ballpark played host to the AIG Fenway Hurling Classic and Irish Festival that featured an exhibition match between Dublin and Galway. And finally, in February, 2016 the Red Sox partnered with the U.S. Ski and Snowboard Association to host Polartec Big Air at Fenway, where some of the world's top skiers and snowboarders competed in an officially sanctioned US Grand Prix Tour event on a 140-foot high, 430 foot long snow ramp constructed on the playing field towering high over the Green Monster.

Gilula oversaw the design, construction and business planning of JetBlue Park at Fenway South, the Red Sox Spring Training and player development complex in Lee County, FL which opened for the 2012 spring training season. The complex, a state-of-the-art, single-site facility designed to meet the long-term needs of the organization and to create the premier spring training complex for both players and fans, has received critical acclaim and was nominated by Sports Business Journal as Sports Facility of the Year in 2013.

Originally joining the Red Sox in October 2002 as Special Assistant to the President/CEO, Gilula worked on a number of special projects including the annual Fenway Park Improvements, the refurbishment of the previous homes to the Red Sox spring training facilities in Lee County, FL, and the construction of the Red Sox Academy in the Dominican Republic.

Gilula began his baseball career in June 1998, when Larry Lucchino, then President/CEO of the San Diego Padres, hired him to work on the planning and development of the team's forthcoming ballpark and its surrounding neighborhood. As Director of Ballpark Development, Gilula was a member of the leadership team that coordinated the design and construction of Petco Park, the home of the Padres, which opened in downtown San Diego in 2004.

Gilula was born in New York City, NY and grew up in La Jolla, CA. He graduated with a degree in Politics from Princeton University in 1998, where he was captain of the varsity tennis team and named First Team All-Ivy League in 1997 and 1998. He serves on the Board of Trustees of the Pan-Mass Challenge, the nation's largest athletic fundraiser, which has raised $547 million for cancer research and treatment through the Jimmy Fund since its inception in 1980. In January 2011, Gilula was selected as one of Sports Business Journal's "40 Under 40" Award recipients, an honor that recognized him as one of the best young talents in the business of sports.

Jonathan resides in Boston with his wife, Robin, their daughter, Brin, and son, Cameron.

Pedro Martinez was named Special Assistant in January 2013. On July 26, 2015, the three-time Cy Young Award winner and eight-time All-Star was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. The following week he was honored with a two-day, two-language tribute at Fenway Park to celebrate the retirement of his uniform number (45).

In his role with the Red Sox, Martinez assists President of Baseball Operations Dave Dombrowski in a variety of areas of major league operations including the evaluation, mentorship, and instruction of young players throughout both spring training and the regular season.

A veteran of 18 major league seasons, Martinez, 45, spent seven years with the Red Sox from 1998-2004 in which he went 117-37 with a 2.52 ERA in 203 games. In addition to owning the franchise's highest career win percentage at .760, he ranks third in Red Sox history in strikeouts (1,683), sixth in wins, and seventh in ERA. Inducted into the Red Sox Hall of Fame in August of 2014, Martinez was an integral part of the 2004 Red Sox club that brought a World Series title to Boston for the first time since 1918.

Over his entire major league career, Martinez posted a record of 219-100 with a 2.93 ERA in 476 games for the Dodgers (1992-93), Expos (1994-97), Red Sox, Mets (2005-08) and Phillies (2009). Born in Manoguayabo in the Dominican Republic, Martinez is the country's all-time leader in winning percentage (.687) and strikeouts (3,154), and ranks second only to Hall of Famer Juan Marichal, the only other Dominican-born Hall of Famer, in ERA.

Following Hall of Famers Carl Yastrzemski (23 seasons), Ted Williams (19 seasons) and Jim Rice (16 seasons), Varitek is the fourth-longest tenured Red Sox player ever to have never appeared for another major league club. Selected as the 18th full-time captain in Red Sox history on December 24, 2004, Varitek was the first major league catcher to catch four no-hitters (matched in 2015 by Carlos Ruiz).

HOW THEY BECAME THE RED SOX

As 1 of 8 clubs to enter into the newly formed American League in 1901, the Red Sox were initially called the Boston Americans. Other nicknames for the club at that time were the Somersets, after original owner Charles W. Somers; Plymouth Rocks; Speed Boys; Puritans; and Pilgrims, but they were officially called the Americans. These various names were applied until 12/18/1907, when the current name “Red Sox” was adopted. The origin of this name is traced to the Boston Red Stockings of the powerful National League in the 1870’s and 1880’s. In 1907 the Red Stockings (who later became the Braves) abandoned the red hosiery they customarily wore. Manager Fred Tenney believed that the red dye in the socks could possibly cause infection in spike wounds. Red Sox Owner John I. Taylor stated, “From now on we’ll wear red stockings, and I’m grabbing that name Red Sox!”

HISTORY & RECORDS

The History of the Red Sox

1901-1909

The American League was formed in 1901, and Boston, Chicago, Cleveland and Detroit are the remaining charter members. The Boston American League Base Ball Club—officially known as the Americans, but also known by the media as the Somersets after owner Charles Somers—started the season on the road April 26 against the Baltimore Orioles (now the New York Yankees), but didn't get their 1st win until April 30 in Cy Young pitched the first perfect game of the modern era on May 5, 1904.

Philadelphia, a 10-inning, 8-6 decision pitched by Cy Young. Young also won the Huntington Avenue Grounds home opener May 8 against Philadelphia, 12-4. In 1903, the team finished 1st with a 91-47 record and earned a berth in the 1st World Series against the National League Pittsburgh Pirates. Game 1 was played at Huntington Avenue and pitched by Young, who lost that day but then won 2 games in the Series. Boston won 5 games to 3, in a best of 9 series, bolstered by Bill Dinneen's 3 victories. 1904 brought another successful year with Young pitching the 1st perfect game of the modern era in the Huntington Avenue Grounds against Philadelphia on May 5. With a 95-59 record, the 1904 Americans were set to play the New York Giants in the World Series, but Giants manager John McGraw and owner John Brush refused to play, making this the 1st of only 2 times since 1903 the World Series was not played. After 1907, the cross-town National League Red Stockings adopted the name "Doves" and changed the team colors from red to blue. Americans owner John I. Taylor snapped up the popular color, and renamed his team the Red Sox. In the latter half of the decade, Young continued to dominate, throwing a no-hitter in New York in 1908 on the way to his record 511 career wins. The Red Sox, however, would not see postseason play again until the next decade.

Taylor decided the Red Sox needed a new ballpark. Fenway Park opened in 1912, and a decade of dynasty began. The new park, named Fenway Park due to its location in the Fenway part of Boston, opened April 20, 1912, with the Red Sox taking a 7-6, 11-inning decision from the New York Highlanders (Yankees). With a 105-47 record, the Sox headed for the World Series led by fireballer Smoky Joe Wood's 34-5 record, and center fielder Tris Speaker's .383 batting average. This time, McGraw did bring the Giants to the World Series, and the Sox defeated them 4 games to 3 with one tie. The Red Sox picked up a young left-handed pitcher in 1914 by the name of George Herman "Babe" Ruth, who would figure prominently in the Red Sox World Series dynasty of the next several years. The Red Sox went to the World Series 3 more times in the decade and won each year. The 1915 Series was marked by the strong hitting and fielding performances of the legendary Sox outfield of Duffy Lewis, Speaker, and Harry Hooper. After dropping Game 1, the Sox won the next 4 to defeat the Philadelphia Phillies for the championship. In 1916, Ruth was the season and Series hero, with a 23-12 regular-season record and a 1.75 ERA. In Game 2 of the World Series, Ruth pitched a 14-inning, complete-game, 2-1 win against Brooklyn, while the Sox went on to take the Series 4 games to 1 for the 2nd straight year. The Red Sox played their World Series games in 1915 and 1916 in the new and larger capacity National League Braves Field on Commonwealth Ave., which held 40,000 fans. In 1918, Ruth extended his streak to 29.2 scoreless World Series innings, a record that stood until 1961, and also tied for the league lead with 11 home runs. In the World Series against the Chicago Cubs, Ruth and Carl Mays each won 2 games to lead the Sox to their 4th World Championship in 7 years. Journeyman LF George Whiteman was the club's unsung Series hero.

1920-1929

After Sox owner Harry Frazee sold Ruth and most of his best players to the Yankees, the "Roaring Twenties" were anything but for the Red Sox. The team did not finish .500 or better in any year of the decade, losing over 100 games in 3 straight seasons from 1925-1927. To add to the difficulty on the field, the ballpark itself suffered a setback. On May 8, 1926, fire roared through Fenway Park, destroying much of the left-field bleacher sections. Then-owner Bob Quinn could not afford to rebuild the sections, and the difficult decade for the Sox continued. All was not gloomy, however, as there were several standout performances by individual players during the decade. Pitcher Sam Jones won 23 games in 1921, and Howard Ehmke won 39 games for the Sox in 1923-1924, including a no-hitter against Philadelphia in 1923. First baseman Stuffy McInnis, a member of the 1918 world champion team, set an AL record with a .999 fielding percentage in 1921 and held the Red Sox career fielding percentage record at 1st base (.996) until Kevin Youkilis passed him in 2009.

The '30s brightened for the Red Sox, and though the team did not make it back to the great years of the 1910s, a new dynasty of ownership began in 1933, when 30-year-old millionaire Tom Yawkey bought the club. His 1st order of business was to rebuild the fire-scarred stadium. Ironically, on the night of Jan. 4, 1934, during construction of the new Fenway Park, another fire raged through the ballpark, destroying much of the progress. The park was still ready for Opening Day 1934, when the Sox lost to Joe Cronin and his Washington Senators on April 17. The Red Sox fielded far better teams than they had in the decade prior, and also saw attendance figures increase, especially after Fenway was refurbished. On August 12, 1934, 46,766 fans attended Ruth's farewell game at Fenway, spilling out onto the field. The next season, the Sox set their record single-day attendance which still stands, with 47,627 fans attending a doubleheader on September 22 against the Yankees. 1935 also saw shortstop Cronin traded to the Sox from Washington to become player-manager. 1938 was the high point of the decade, with Cronin leading the Sox to an 88-61 record, and MVP Jimmie Foxx hitting 50 home runs, a team record which stood until 2006, with 175 RBI and a league-high .349 average. Veteran Lefty Grove led the league in ERA for 4 of the last 5 years of the decade. 1939 brought forth a new era in Red Sox baseball, when Ted Williams began his legendary career. That season, the Red Sox had 5 future Hall of Famers on the roster in Williams, Cronin, Foxx, Grove and Bobby Doerr, and they finished with an 89-62 record. In 1931, the Red Sox took the field with numbers on their uniforms for the 1st time. For some Red Sox players, these were the numbers that would forever be associated with them as Boston legends.

Ted Williams began his Hall of Fame career with the Red Sox in 1939.

1940-1949

The '40s got even better for the Red Sox. 1941 was a landmark year for the team, with Williams hitting .406 and Grove picking up his 300th career win. Williams is the last player to hit over .400 for a season, and Grove is 1 of 2 pitchers to get his 300th win as a Red Sox, the other being Cy Young. Williams continued his consistent hitting by picking up his 1st Triple Crown in 1942, and his 2nd of 4 batting titles in the 40's. Rookie Dave Ferriss was 21-10 in 1945, and helped the team return to the World Series in 1946 when he was 25-6. The Sox won the pennant by a comfortable 12-game margin in 1946, winning 104 games in the process, but lost the World Series for the 1st time in franchise history to the St. Louis Cardinals in 7 games. Fenway also played host to the 1946 All-Star Game, in which Williams went 4-for-4 with 2 home runs and 5 RBI. Coming off the AL pennant year, Williams won a 2nd Triple Crown in 1947. Lights were also installed that season to start the era of night baseball at Fenway. 1948 and 1949 were both tough seasons for the Red Sox. While collecting 96 wins in each year, they finished both seasons 1 game out of 1st place. They lost a 1-game playoff to the Cleveland Indians in 1948; had the Sox won that game, they would have played the Boston Braves in the World Series. In 1949, they lost the final 2 games of the season in Yankee Stadium to finish 1 game behind the Yankees. The Sox teams of the late 40's were led by pitcher Mel Parnell, who won 25 games and the ERA title in 1949, while Ellis Kinder also picked up 23 victories in 1949. By the end of the 1940's, however, Williams had clearly established himself as one of the greatest players in baseball. He had played 8 major league seasons through 1949, and in that time he amassed 2 MVPs, 2 Triple Crowns, 4 RBI titles (1 tied with teammate Vern Stephens), 4 home run titles, and 4 batting titles. Dom DiMaggio, one of baseball's greatest centerfielders, had a .298 career average, scored 100 runs 7 times, was a 7-time All-Star and led the AL in 1950 with 11 triples, 15 stolen bases, and 131 runs scored. In 1948 he had 503 putouts (despite playing in the AL's smallest park), a record that stood until 1977. He is 1 of only 5 outfielders to have 500 putouts in a season. Johnny Pesky, an excellent all-around shortstop, had 200 hits in each of his 1st 3 ML seasons and had a .313 career average for the Red Sox.

1950-1959

The 50's were another decade of strong hitting for the Sox, starting off with the Rookie of the Year Award-winning performance by 1st baseman Walter Dropo in 1950. Dropo was a part of perhaps the best-hitting Red Sox team ever, with the starting lineup averaging .313, and the entire team hitting .302. Infielder Billy Goodman won the batting championship in 1950 with his .354 average, while the team amassed a 94-60 record, which would ultimately be their best for the decade. Williams broke his elbow in the All-Star Game and played in only 89 games (28 HR, 97 RBI). For the 2nd time in his career, Williams put off baseball for military service in the Korean War in 1952 and 1953, after serving 3 years during World War II. Upon his return, he continued his usual impressive hitting with a tremendous league-leading .388 batting average in 1957 with 38 home runs, and a 2nd straight title with a .328 average at the age of 40 in 1958. Meanwhile, Jackie Jensen won the RBI title in 1955 (tied), 1958, and 1959, and the MVP in 1958. Rookie 3rd baseman Frank Malzone joined the team full-time in 1957 and won 3 Gold Glove Awards (1957-59). Some Red Sox pitchers also fared well in the 1950s, as Parnell continued his successful pitching through the 1st half of the decade, winning 69 games for the Sox from 1950-53 along with a no-hitter in 1956. Frank Sullivan had 90 wins from 1954 to 1960, and Kinder became one of the league's best relief pitchers of the early 1950s. On July 21, 1959 infielder Pumpsie Green made his debut as the 1st Red Sox African-American major leaguer.

The end of the '50s also brought the end of the Williams era in Red Sox history. Williams hit his 521st and final home run into the Red Sox bullpen in his last at-bat on September 28, 1960. The spot he vacated in left field was filled in 1961 by rookie Carl Yastrzemski, who would later match some of Williams' feats. Don Schwall would collect Rookie of the Year honors after winning his first 10 decisions at Fenway on the way to a 15-7 record overall. Fenway Park also hosted the 1961 All-Star Game, a 1-1 tie, rained out after 9 innings. Sox pitching heroics continued in 1962 when both Earl Wilson and Bill Monbouquette tossed no-hitters. Monbouquette went on to win 20 games in 1963, the same year Yaz won his 1st batting title. Dave Morehead threw a no-hitter on September 16, 1965 against Cleveland at Fenway Park, but the Sox had their worst record of that decade, losing 100 games. One bright spot of 1965 was the emergence of Lynn, MA native Tony Conigliaro, who hit a league-leading 32 homers in his 2nd season, the 2nd of his 6 consecutive seasons of 20 or more home runs. After another losing season, finishing 9th in 1966, the Red Sox overcame 100-1 odds and won the "Impossible Dream" pennant in 1967 with a 92-70 record. Though they did not win the World Series, that season lives on as one of the greatest in Red Sox history. 1967 proved to be career years for Jim Lonborg, who won the Cy Young Award with a 22-9 record plus 2 World Series wins, and Yastrzemski, who won the Triple Crown and MVP. First baseman George Scott and outfielder Reggie Smith were key performers in the pennant drive. Ken Harrelson led the league with 109 RBI in 1968, while Yaz won his 3rd batting title. Yaz and Rico Petrocelli finished the '60s with 40-home run seasons in 1969.

1970-1979

The era of Yaz continued into the '70s when he again hit 40 home runs while Conigliaro notched 36 of his own in 1970. In 1972, another young player made his mark by unanimously winning the Rookie of the Year Award. Catcher Carlton Fisk, a New Hampshire native, made his 1st full year in the majors count, leading the Red Sox to a 2nd-place finish, just a half-game out of 1st place, for their best finish since 1967. Pitcher Luis Tiant thrilled Sox fans and took home the ERA title that season. Two other famous rookies, Jim Rice and Fred Lynn, were added to the mix in 1975, and made their mark on another AL championship season. Lynn won both MVP and Rookie of the Year honors, the 1st player ever to do so in the same year, while Rice hit 22 home runs to Lynn's 21. Tiant, Rick Wise, and Bill Lee combined for 54 of the Red Sox' 95 wins in 1975, with Tiant and Wise pitching all 3 of the Red Sox wins in the World Series. In Game 6, Bernie Carbo's 2-out, 3-run home run in the 8th inning tied the game at 6-6. Fisk left his mark on baseball history when he hit a 12th-inning pitch off the left-field foul pole for a dramatic finish for the Red Sox, in what many consider to be the greatest World Series game ever.

Dwight Evans patrolled Fenway's right field from 1972-1990.

Once again, however, the Sox came up short, and were defeated by Cincinnati in 7 games. On July 9, 1976, owner Tom Yawkey passed away. Mrs. Jean R. Yawkey, Haywood Sullivan, and Edward "Buddy" LeRoux were approved by the AL as the new owners in May 1978. The Sox continued to be successful through the end of the 1970s. In 1977, they had 97 wins and finished just 2.5 games out of 1st. They finished 1978 with 99 wins, just 1 game out after losing, 5-4, in a 1-game play-off against the Yankees. Those 2 seasons were great years for Rice, who won the home run title in 1977, and took home MVP honors in 1978 after ending the season with the home run and RBI crowns. Lynn had a terrific 1979 season and won the batting championship, while Yaz got his 3,000th hit on September 12. That July, he also hit his 400th home run. Dwight Evans did his part, not only with his bat, but also in right field, picking up 3 Gold Glove Awards in the last 4 seasons of the decade. Versatile Bob Stanley made his entry upon the scene in 1977, and in his 12-year Red Sox career racked up what was then a club-record 132 saves. Shortstop Rick Burleson teamed with 2nd baseman and Fall River, MA native Jerry Remy to form one of the club's best double-play combinations.

1980-1989

3rd baseman Carney Lansford won a batting championship in 1981. Evans tied for the 1981 AL home run title, one of his seven 20-plus HR seasons in the decade. Rice won the HR title in 1983 with 39, followed closely by Tony Armas, who had 36. Armas then hit 43 in 1984 to lead the AL. The early '80s were not particularly successful for the Red Sox, however, and they failed to finish higher than 3rd until their AL championship in 1986. Evans got 1986 off to an auspicious start, homering in Detroit on the 1st pitch of the season. Roger Clemens, who won the Cy Young and MVP Awards, dominated AL batters in 1986, winning 24 games, including his 1st 14 decisions, with a 2.48 ERA. He also broke a major league record, striking out 20 batters in a 3-1 win April 29 vs. Seattle. Under manager John McNamara's leadership, the team won 95 games and came back from a 3-games-to-1 deficit in the ALCS to earn a World Series matchup with the Mets, which the Sox lost in 7 games. Overall, the season was filled with many personal milestones, with Rice getting his 2,000th hit, Don Baylor hitting his 300th HR, Clemens winning 20 games for the 1st time, and Wade Boggs winning his 3rd of 5 batting titles in the decade. In 1987, Boggs won another batting title, while Clemens had his 2nd 20-win season and Cy Young Award, but the Red Sox finished a disappointing 5th. The Red Sox returned to their winning ways in the late '80s, topping the AL East again in 1988 with Joe Morgan's miracle team. After Morgan took over from McNamara in July, the Sox won 12 straight and 19 of 20 games, to come from 9 games behind and move into 1st place in the AL East. "Morgan's Magic" became the team's slogan, but the Red Sox were overpowered by Oakland in the ALCS. Nevertheless, the successful teams of the late '80s ushered in a decade of milestones and achievements in the 1990s.

Yaz was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1989.

1990-1999

The Sox started the decade off on the right foot by winning the AL East in 1990 with strong performances by Boggs, Evans, Clemens, Mike Boddicker, and right fielder Tom Brunansky, whose great diving catch saved the final game of the season. The Sox again played the A's in the ALCS and met the same fate, losing in 4 games. The 1990 season saw the Red Sox put players' names on the back of their road jerseys for the 1st time in club history. 1991 brought the start of the Mo Vaughn era, and the hard-hitting 1st baseman became a fan favorite, while Dalton, MA native Jeff Reardon pitched his way to 40 saves as the Sox headed to a 2nd-place finish. Mrs. Yawkey passed away in February 1992, leaving her majority general partnership to the continued direction of John L. Harrington with Haywood C. Sullivan as general partner. After the 1993 season, Sullivan sold his interest in the club to the Yawkey Trust and Harrington became CEO of the organization. The Sox fared well after the new division set-up was established in 1995, reaching postseason play 3 times in the last 5 years of the decade, including back-to-back appearances in 1998 and 1999, the 1st time the team accomplished that since 1915-1916. In 1995, the Red Sox and the Cleveland Indians started a Division Series rivalry that would last throughout the decade. Behind the powerful hitting of Vaughn, who led the AL in HR and picked up the MVP Award, and the stable pitching of Clemens and knuckleballer Tim Wakefield, the Sox won the East Division title and faced the Indians in the 1995 ALDS, only to be swept in 3 games. In 1996, Clemens struck out 20 batters in a game for the 2nd time in his career, tying his own major league record. In 1997, highly-touted shortstop Nomar Garciaparra made his way to Fenway and picked up the Rookie of the Year Award while leading the league with 209 hits. In 1998, he was joined by another superstar, Pedro Martinez. The '98 Sox won the Wild Card for the 1st time. Strong pitching was the key to the team's success, as Martinez went 19-7 with a 2.89 ERA, while Tom Gordon converted a ML-record 43 consecutive saves on his way to 46 saves in all. The Sox faced Cleveland in the Division Series, where they were defeated once again. The pitching would figure into another great season for the Sox in 1999, a year in which Fenway hosted the final All-Star Game of the century, the 3rd in the history of the park. Martinez was MVP of the game, retiring all 6 batters he faced, 5 on strikeouts, ultimately winning the Cy Young Award unanimously and falling just short of MVP honors with a 23-4, 2.07 ERA season. Once again, Martinez led the Sox to a Wild Card berth and the Division Series against the Indians. This time, the Sox emerged victorious, coming back from losing the 1st two games to dramatically win the series behind six no-hit relief innings by Martinez and 2 HR and 7 RBI by Troy O'Leary. Playing in the ALCS for the 1st time since 1986, the Sox met the Yankees in the series, with the high point coming in Game 3 when Sox ace Martinez met former Sox ace Clemens at Fenway Park. Riding home runs by Garciaparra, John Valentin, and Brian Daubach, the Sox cruised to a 13-1 win, their only victory in the series.

2000 featured great efforts by Martinez, who unanimously won his 2nd straight Cy Young Award, and Garciaparra, who won his 2nd consecutive AL batting title (.372). Derek Lowe tied for the AL lead with 42 saves. The Sox finished 2nd at 85-77, 2.5 games behind the Yankees, and set a new Fenway Park attendance record of 2,586,024. On Dec. 13, 2000, the Red Sox signed OF Manny Ramirez to bolster the offense.

Despite major injuries to Garciaparra, Martinez, Valentin, and catcher Jason Varitek, the Red Sox led the AL East for most of the 1st half in 2001. Through Aug. 24, the Sox were only 3 games behind the Yankees before they went into a tailspin that resulted in 21 losses in 26 games and finished 2nd at 82-79. Manager Jimmy Williams was replaced by pitching coach Joe Kerrigan prior to the Aug. 16 game vs. Seattle. RHP Hideo Nomo made his Sox debut April 4 in Baltimore and won, 3-0, with the club's 1st no-hitter since 1965. Nomo pitched a 1-hitter May 25 vs. Toronto and led the AL with 220 strikeouts. The team set new attendance records at home (2,625,333 in 81 dates with 69 sellouts) and on the road (2,700,811 in 80 dates).

The 68-year Yawkey era came to a close when a new ownership group led by John Henry, Tom Werner, and Larry Lucchino took control prior to the 2002 season. In March 2002, they replaced GM Dan Duquette with VP of Baseball Operations Mike Port, on an interim basis, and brought in Grady Little as manager to replace Kerrigan. The Sox led the AL East from April 15-June 22 but finished 2nd at 93-69, including 51-30 on the road. Lowe pitched Fenway Park's 1st no-hitter since 1965, 10-0 vs. Tampa Bay on April 27. Lowe (21-8) and Martinez (20-4) gave the Sox a pair of 20-game winners for the 1st time since 1949. Ramirez led the AL with a .349 average. Lowe, Martinez, Ramirez, Garciaparra, Shea Hillenbrand, Johnny Damon, and Ugueth Urbina were selected for the AL All-Star team and Lowe, Hillenbrand, and Ramirez started the game. The team again set an attendance record (2,650,063 in 81 dates). On Nov. 25, 2002, Theo Epstein was named GM, making him the youngest in MLB history at 28 years, 10 months old.

The 2003 Red Sox had an exciting 95-67 regular season, their most wins since 1995, a 2nd-place East Division finish and the 16th trip to the postseason. The club won its 3rd Wild Card playoff berth and came from a 2-0 deficit in the ALDS to win 3 straight vs. Oakland and advance to the ALCS vs. the Yankees. A dramatic 7-game series wasn't resolved until Aaron Boone's 11th-inning HR stopped the Red Sox. Epstein made offseason moves to help the team become an offensive powerhouse that set many records. The additions of David Ortiz, Kevin Millar, Bill Mueller, and Todd Walker solidified a batting order that produced 961 runs, 2nd-most in club history. A club-record 6 players hit 20 HR and the Sox set a new team mark with 238. They set new ML records of 2,822 TB, 649 XBH, and a .491 slugging pct., while their 371 doubles fell 2 shy of the ML mark held by the Sox (1997) and the Cardinals (1930). They were 53-28 (.654) at home. Lowe (17-7), Martinez (14-4), John Burkett (12-9), and Wakefield (11-7) led a staff whose 1,141 strikeouts topped the AL. Mueller (.326) edged Ramirez (.325) for the AL batting crown while Garciaparra (105), Ramirez (104), and Ortiz (101) gave the Sox 3 players with 100 RBI for the 1st time since 1984.

In his 1st year as manager, Terry Francona led the 2004 Red Sox to a 98-64 record and a Wild Card berth. The Sox swept the Anaheim Angels in the ALDS as Ortiz's dramatic HR in the 10th inning of Game 3 ensured a rematch with the Yankees for the AL pennant. After dropping the first 3 games to New York, the Red Sox rallied behind the bat of Ortiz, the baserunning of Dave Roberts, an RBI single by Mueller, an airtight bullpen, and the gritty performance of Curt Schilling to win the final 4 games of the series, completing the greatest comeback in ML history. The Red Sox then swept the Cardinals to win the World Series for the 6th time and the 1st since 1918. Led by Series MVP Ramirez, the Red Sox never trailed. Lowe became the 1st pitcher ever to win the clinching game of 3 playoff series in 1 postseason. Key acquisitions Schilling and Keith Foulke lived up to their billing, while the mid-season trade of Garciaparra for Orlando Cabrera and Doug Mientkiewicz, and the acquisition of Roberts, improved the club's defense and speed. Martinez (227) and Schilling (203) became the 1st Red Sox teammates ever to strike out 200 batters in the same season. Ramirez and Ortiz became the 1st AL teammates to bat .300, hit 30 HR, and drive in 100 runs since 1931. They also became just the 2nd pair of Red Sox to hit over 40 HR in a single season. The Red Sox sold out their 81-game home schedule for the 1st time in franchise history.

The 2005 Red Sox were 95-67, winning the AL Wild Card and reaching the postseason for a club-record 3rd straight season. The Sox were swept in the ALDS by the eventual World Champion Chicago White Sox. During the regular season, Ortiz (47 HR, 148 RBI) and Ramirez (45 HR, 144 RBI) combined for 92 HR and 292 RBI, more than any other duo in baseball. The Red Sox led the ML in runs, batting average, BB, OBP and OPS. The pitching staff was led by Wakefield (16-12). Mike Timlin had a league-high and single-season club record 81 appearances, and rookie Jonathan Papelbon was impressive down the stretch. Varitek earned his first Gold Glove Award. The club set a new attendance mark for the 6th straight season with a total of 2,847,888. On Nov. 25, 2005, Mike Lowell and Josh Beckett were acquired from the Marlins as part of a 7-player deal.

In 2006, the Red Sox set a home attendance record (2,930,588) for the 7th straight season, a ML record. A host of late-season injuries contributed to the team falling to an 86-76 record to miss postseason play for the 1st time since 2002. The Red Sox were 53-33 (.616) at the All-Star break, their best winning pct. at that point since 1986 (56-31, .644), and led the AL East by 3 games. Boston set a ML fielding pct. record (.98910) with just 66 errors in 6,053 total chances. Alex Gonzalez led AL SS with a .985 fielding pct., a new club record. Ortiz led the AL with a club-record 54 HR and also led with 137 RBI, 355 TB and 119 BB. His 32 road HR tied Babe Ruth (1927) for the AL record. He had 5 walk-off hits, including 3 HR. Papelbon was a dominant closer until shoulder problems sidelined him after Sept. 1. He had 35 saves in 59 games and held opponents to a .167 batting average. He was the 2nd Sox rookie pitcher selected for the All-Star Game (Don Schwall 1961) but did not pitch. Ramirez hit .321 with 35 HR, 102 RBI, and 100 BB but played in just 11 games the final 6 weeks due to right knee tendinitis. He received the most votes of any AL player to start the All-Star Game, but his knee problem prevented him from playing. Schilling made a comeback from his injury-curtailed 2005 and was 15-7 in 31 games. Beckett led the staff in wins in his 1st Red Sox season (16).

In 2007, the Red Sox clinched their 1st AL East title since 1995, going 96-66. After sweeping the Angels 3-0 in the ALDS, Boston went down 3 games to 1 in the ALCS vs. Cleveland. The Sox completed another comeback to clinch their 12th AL pennant, then swept the Rockies to win their 2nd World Series title in 4 years and 7th overall. The Red Sox offense was led by World Series MVP Lowell and the stellar pitching efforts of Beckett, Schilling, and Papelbon. Francona became the 1st Sox manager to take a team to the postseason in 3 different seasons (2004, '05, '07) and only the 2nd manager in club history to win 2 World Series (Bill Carrigan, 1915-16). The Sox joined the Yankees as the only teams in AL history to sweep in successive World Series appearances. During the regular season, the 96 wins tied Cleveland for the most victories in the majors. The Sox led the AL East for the final 166 days of 2007 beginning April 18, the longest consecutive stretch in club history. Their pitching staff led the AL with a 3.87 ERA. They were 1 of 2 ML teams with 3 15-game winners: Beckett (20), Wakefield (18), and Daisuke Matsuzaka (15). Offensively, the Red Sox had 3 of the top 10 AL batting leaders: Ortiz (.333, 5th), Lowell (.326, 7th), and Rookie of the Year Dustin Pedroia (.317, 10th). The Sox were successful on an AL-best 80% (96-120) of their SB attempts (club record). The team also finished 2nd in the AL with a .986 fielding pct. led by the outstanding play of Gold Glove-winning Kevin Youkilis, who handled a Red Sox record 1,586 straight errorless chances at 1B (1,079 chances in 2007). Clayton Kershaw became just the 3rd player in ML history to throw a no-hitter in his 1st or 2nd ML start on Sept. 1, 2007 (his 2nd game).

Jonathan Papelbon closed out the 2007 World Series.

The 2008 Red Sox began their World Series title defense on March 25, 2008 in Tokyo, Japan vs. the A's. The club finished with a 95-67 regular-season record (.586) to clinch their 6th AL Wild Card berth. After defeating the Los Angeles Angels 3 games to 1 in the ALDS, Boston lost the ALCS to Tampa Bay in 7 games. The Red Sox were sparked by the stellar play of AL MVP Pedroia, who led the league in doubles (54) and tied for the AL lead with 213 hits. Youkilis saw a ML-record 238 consecutive errorless games (2,002 TC) streak end on June 7, and also led the team in HR, RBI, slugging, and OBP to finish 3rd in AL MVP voting. The team sent 7 players to the 2008 All-Star Game: Ramirez, Ortiz, Youkilis, and Pedroia were elected starters; Varitek, Papelbon, and All-Star Game MVP J.D. Drew were reserves. A 3-team deadline trade sent Ramirez to the LA Dodgers and brought OF Jason Bay from Pittsburgh. Bay was instrumental in the late-season playoff push as he hit .293 (54-184) with 54 RBI and 9 HR over 49 games. Jacoby Ellsbury (50) led the league in SB. The club led the ML with 16 SHO and was 1st in the AL with 1,185 strikeouts. Matsuzaka led starters with an 18-3 record and 2.90 ERA. Papelbon continued as a premier closer with 41 saves. Jon Lester threw the 18th no-hitter in Red Sox history vs. KC on May 19 at Fenway Park. For the 9th consecutive year, the Red Sox established a new club record for home attendance, totalling 3,048,248 fans in 81 games.

The 2009 Red Sox finished 2nd in the AL East at 95-67 (.586), their 12th straight winning record, as Boston won its 7th AL Wild Card. It was the 20th playoff appearance in the team's 109-year history, but the Sox were swept 3-0 by the Angels. Boston had 126 SB, the club's highest total since the 1916 squad stole 129. The team had 6 All-Stars: Bay, Beckett, Papelbon, Pedroia, Wakefield, and Youkilis. At the trade deadline they acquired from the Cleveland Indians C/1B Victor Martinez, who logged a 25-game hit streak from Aug. 28-Sept. 26. Beckett and Lester combined as the only AL teammates with 15 wins, 200 innings, and a sub-4.00 ERA. Ellsbury led the ML with a club-record 70 steals. Papelbon's 155 career saves passed Bob Stanley's club record of 132. Wakefield also topped the Red Sox career starts list with 388 over Roger Clemens (382). For the 10th straight year, the Red Sox set a new club record for home attendance, an accomplishment unprecedented in MLB.

2010-Present

The 2010 Red Sox finished 3rd in the AL East at 89-73 (.549), their 13th consecutive winning season. The Sox offense led MLB in TB (2546), 2B (358), and OPS (.790). Red Sox pitchers led the AL with 1,207 strikeouts. Buchholz and Lester anchored the staff as the only pair of teammates in baseball to win 17 or more games and compile ERAs below 4.00. They each won AL Pitcher of the Month honors in 2010 (May and August, respectively), while Ortiz captured AL Player of the Month honors in May (.363, 10 HR). Ortiz led the Sox with 32 HR and tied for the team RBI lead with Adrian Beltre (102 each). Six Red Sox made the AL All-Star team (Beltre, Buchholz, Lester, Martinez, Ortiz, and Pedroia). Wakefield became the club's all-time IP leader during his June 8 start. On Aug. 3 vs. the Indians, Lowell made his 1st plate appearance at Fenway Park in over a month and hit a HR into the Green Monster seats. He announced his retirement before the team's Oct. 2 game vs. New York. Several newcomers contributed: rookie Daniel Nava hit a grand slam on June 12 vs. Philadelphia on the 1st pitch he saw in the majors. On April 20 vs. Texas, Darnell McDonald hit an 8th-inning, PH HR in his 1st Red Sox at-bat, then drove a walk-off hit off the Green Monster one inning later. Despite missing Beckett, Buchholz, Mike Cameron, Ellsbury, Martinez, Pedroia, Varitek and Youkilis for extended stretches, the Sox remained in the race while battling in the only division in baseball with four 85-plus win teams.

The Red Sox finished 2011 at 90-72 (.556), the 14th straight year with a winning record. They started 0-6 but went on to post a ML-leading 81-42 (.659) record from April 16-Aug. 31, the most wins in any stretch of 123 games by a Red Sox team since 1949. Boston led the ML at 20-6 (.769) in July, the team's best record in any month since April 1952 (10-2, .833). The club began September with the AL's best record at 83-52 (.615) but went 7-20 (.259) the rest of the way. A loss in the final regular-season game, Boston's 1st all season when entering the 9th inning with a lead, ensured that they would not reach the playoffs. Their 9-game lead for a playoff spot was the largest ever relinquished in ML history entering September. The Sox led the ML in runs (875), hits (1,600), 2B (352), XBH (590), RBI (842), TB (2,631), OBP (.349), SLG (.461), OPS (.810), and 10+ run games (25). Adrian Gonzalez (213) and Ellsbury (212) were 2 of the 5 major leaguers with at least 200 hits. The Sox featured 4 of the top 7 hitters in the AL in batting average: Gonzalez (.338, 2nd), Ellsbury (.321, 5th), Ortiz (.309, 6th), and Pedroia (.307, 7th). On Aug. 16 vs. Tampa Bay, the club turned its 1st triple play since 1994. Ellsbury became the 1st Red Sox to lead the ML in total bases (364) since Tony Armas in 1984 and also led the ML with 83 XBH. He became the 1st ever Red Sox to record a 30-HR/30-SB season (32 HR/39 SB) and had the most errorless chances ever in a season by a Red Sox OF (394). Pedroia (21 HR/26 SB) joined him as the 1st Red Sox teammates ever to record 20-HR/20-SB seasons in the same year. Ellsbury, Gonzalez, and Pedroia each won a Gold Glove, the 1st time 3 Red Sox have won the award in one season. Ortiz, who hit 29 HR, was the 2011 recipient of the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award for positive contributions on and off the field. The Sox had 6 players selected to play for the AL in the All-Star Game: Ortiz, Youkilis, Ellsbury, Gonzalez, Beckett, and Lester. Wakefield earned his 200th career win on Sept. 13 vs. Toronto and in his next game, Sept. 18 vs. Tampa Bay, became the 1st Red Sox to record 3,000 innings with the club. The Sox sold out all 81 home games with a home attendance of 3,054,001. The club ran its ML record sellout streak to 712 consecutive games.

The Red Sox celebrated the 100th anniversary of Fenway Park in 2012.

2012 was the 100th Anniversary of Fenway Park and the year was filled with events, tributes and memorable moments. A free open house took place on April 19 with 54,000 fans visiting the ballpark. The next day, 212 alumni took part in pregame ceremonies prior to a game vs. the Yankees, exactly 100 years from Fenway's opening game, also vs. New York. Mr. Red Sox, Johnny Pesky, who spent 61 years with the club as a SS, manager, coach, broadcaster, special assistant and ambassador, passed away on Aug. 13 at age 93. The Red Sox finished the season with a 69-93 (.426) record, their lowest winning pct. since 1965. Manager Bobby Valentine, hired to replace Francona after the 2011 season, was let go when the season ended. The club had not lost 90 games in a season since 1966 (the longest streak in the ML). It also ended 14 straight winning seasons, the second longest such streak in club history to a 16-year run from 1967-82. It was the first 5th-place (last) finish in the AL East since the current format began in 1994. 27 different players went on the DL for 34 separate stints, both of which were the most by a Sox team since at least 1971 (the most by any team since at least 1987). Injuries were a key for 26 pitchers being used (2 shy of club record in 2006) and 56 players appeared in a game (a new club mark). On Aug. 25, the Red Sox made a 9-player trade with the Dodgers (3rd time Sox were involved in a 9-player move, 2nd only to a 10-player trade with Milwaukee in 1971). The Sox led the majors in doubles (339) for a 3rd straight year. Ortiz went on the DL July 18 due to a right Achilles strain and played in only one more game the rest of the season. Rookie 3B Will Middlebrooks debuted on May 2 and hit .288 with 15 HR and 54 RBI in 75 games before a season-ending right wrist fracture on Aug. 10. LHP Felix Doubront averaged 9.34 SO/9.0 IP (167 SO, 161.0 IP). Lester reached 1,060 career strikeouts to surpass Bruce Hurst (1,043) for most ever by a Sox lefty. Jarrod Saltalamacchia's 25 HR were 2nd for AL catchers, the first backstop to lead the Red Sox since Carlton Fisk (26) in 1973. On Sept. 26, the last day of the home season, the All-Fenway Team (as selected by fans via on-line vote, with input from historians and consultants) was introduced to the crowd. The Red Sox drew 3,043,003 fans at Fenway in 2012.

The 2013 Red Sox had a storybook year going from last place to first place in the East, winning the AL pennant and capturing their 3rd World Series title in 10 years, 8th overall. The all-time home sellout streak in American sports history ended on April 10, the 2nd game of the season. The streak began on May 15, 2003 and reached 794 games plus 26 more in postseason play. New manager John Farrell, the club's pitching coach from 2007-10, who was named the team's 46th manager on Oct. 22, 2012, became the 7th to lead the Red Sox into the postseason in his first year and the 4th to win the World Series. At 97-65 (.599), they tied St. Louis for the best record in MLB. It was the 7th time the Red Sox won 97 or more games and only the 2nd time since 1978. They were an AL-best 53-29 (.654) at home. They were in first place an AL-high 158 days after failing to spend one day in first in 2012. For only the 2nd time in 113 years (1903), the Red Sox did not have more than a 3-game losing streak. An 18-8 April was followed by a 15-15 mark in May and then an over-500 record every month thereafter. It all culminated in October with a 3-to-1 game margin over Tampa Bay, and 4-games-to-2 decisions over Detroit for the AL pennant and St. Louis in the World Series. It was the first time the Red Sox clinched a World Series title at home since 1918. Closer Koji Uehara was the ALCS MVP and Ortiz won the World Series MVP. Ortiz went 11-for-16 (.688) with 2 home runs and 8 walks in the Fall Classic. Uehara was 1-0, 0.00 ERA, 3 saves in 5 games vs. the Tigers. Overall in the postseason, he was 1-1 in 13 games with 7 saves, 16 strikeouts and no walks in 13.1 IP. John Lackey became the 1st pitcher ever to start and win the clinching game of a World Series for two different teams. Ortiz (starting DH), Pedroia and Buchholz were on the AL All-Star team that defeated the NL, 3-0, in July. Rawlings Gold Glove honors went to 2B Pedroia and RF Shane Victorino, and Pedroia was named the AL's Wilson Defensive Player of the Year. The Red Sox led the majors in batting average, runs, OBP, SLG, OPS, doubles, XBH, TB, BB, and grand slams. Seven PH HR led the AL and tied the club record (1953), with Jonny Gomes' 4 tying for the ML high. The club had 11 walk-off wins, 2nd in the AL and their most since 1961. Sox pitchers had a 3.79 ERA, their best since 2002. The Sox staff set new club marks with 1,294 strikeouts and 47 double-figure strikeout games. Uehara set a team record with 37 consecutive batters retired, 8/17-9/13. Uehara, who didn't become the official closer until the end of June, was 4-1, 1.09 ERA overall with 21 saves, 101 SO, and 9 BB in 73 games. Pedroia set all-time club marks with 159 starts and 160 games at 2B. Ellsbury led MLB with 52 SB in 56 tries (92.9%). He set a club record with 5 SB on May 30 at PHI. He also hit 3 leadoff home runs for a new team career record of 12. Lester reached 15 wins for the 5th time (15-8) and also went over 200.0 IP (213.1) for the 5th time. He set a team career record for LHP of 1,237 strikeouts.

The 2013 Red Sox clinched the World Series at home for the 1st time since 1918.

In 2014, the Red Sox went 71-91 (.438) and returned to last place a year after winning the World Series, becoming the 1st team to go from last to a WS title and back to last place in 3 straight years. Due to numerous trades, including 4 within the last 4 hours of the 7/31 deadline, 55 players appeared for the team, 1 shy of Boston's 2012 record. By the deadline the Sox had dealt 4 members of its season-opening rotation in Lester, Lackey, RHP Jake Peavy, and Doubront. As a result, 9 different pitchers made at least 10 starts. With 35 HR (T-5th in AL) and 104 RBI (6th), Ortiz notched his club-record 8th 30-HR/100-RBI season. Pedroia won his 4th Gold Glove and led the majors with a club record for fielding pct. at 2B (.997) but was hampered by injury. Sox OFs led the AL with 37 assists, and Jackie Bradley Jr. topped MLB with 13 assists and 8 double plays from CF. Rookie C Christian Vazquez posted 51.7 CS rate (15 of 29), best in club history (min. 15 games at C). 21-year-olds SS/3B Xander Bogaerts (led MLB rookies with 142 starts) and OF/2B Mookie Betts (debuted with a .291 AVG in 52 games), along with INF/OF Brook Holt (1st Red Sox ever to start at 1B, 2B, SS, 3B, LF, CF, RF in a season) were among 19 rookies to play for the Sox, the club's most since 1926 (21). Lester and Uehara pitched for the AL All-Star Team, led by Farrell and his coaches.

Despite 7 more wins than 2014, the 2015 Red Sox finished last for a 2nd straight year, 15.0 games back, going 78-84 (.481). The team struggled after a 12-10 April and opened the year an AL-worst 44-58 through July 29. Boston turned it around with a 34-26 record the rest of the way (4th in the AL), leading the majors with a .281 AVG beginning in August. On Aug. 18, David Dombrowski was hired as President of Baseball Operations and Ben Cherington declined the opportunity to continue as GM. Mike Hazen was named Senior VP/GM on Sept. 24. From Aug. 18 on, Farrell was on medical leave after being diagnosed with stage 1 non-Hodgkin's Burkitt lymphoma and bench coach Torey Lovullo served as interim manager. Ortiz led MLB after the All-Star break with a .701 SLG and closed the year with 37 HR, most by a Red Sox since his club record 54 HR in 2006. He set new club records with his 9th 30-HR season and 6th 35-HR campaign and hit career homers 499 and 500 on Sept. 12 to become the 27th member of the 500-HR club. Bogaerts, the AL Silver Slugger winner at SS, finished 2nd in the AL in both hits (196, most ever by a Red Sox in age-22 season or younger) and AVG (.320). Fellow youngster Betts became the 1st ever AL player to reach 42 2B, 18 HR, and 21 SB in a season at 22 or younger. Holt, the Red Sox' lone All-Star, started at every position other than P and C for the 2nd straight year. The club saw rookie pitchers make 44 starts, most since 1984, led by Eduardo Rodriguez's 21.

Boston won the 2016 AL East title after finishing in last place in 2015 and 2014, becoming the first team ever to go from "worst to first" twice in a five-year span. The Red Sox won 15 more games in 2016 (93) than they did in 2015 (78)—the largest improvement among any team in the majors that season—before being swept in the ALDS by eventual AL champion Cleveland, three games to none. Boston began July with a 5.0-game deficit in the East and suffered a 21-2 loss to the Angels at home on July 2, but from July 3 through the end of the season their .610 winning percentage (50-32) led the AL and ranked second in the majors behind only the Cubs (.642, 52-29). The Sox went 19-8 in September, putting together an 11-game winning streak from September 15-25. Boston led the majors in runs scored (878), batting average (.282), OBP (.348), SLG (.461), OPS (.810), and doubles (343), setting a franchise record by homering in 22 consecutive games from April 29-May 22. Ortiz (38 HR/127 RBI), Betts (31/113), and Hanley Ramirez (30/111) became the first trio in franchise history to record 30+ home runs and 100+ RBI each in a season, while Betts (214 hits) and Pedroia (201) were only the fourth Red Sox duo ever with 200+ hits each in a season. Boston was the only team in 2016 to earn as many as three Silver Slugger awards (Betts, Ortiz, Bogaerts), while Betts represented the club on the Rawlings AL Gold Glove

In his final season, David Ortiz led the majors in doubles, XBH, SLG, and OPS.

Team. The Sox also featured the majors' second- and third-longest hitting streaks of the season, compiled by Bradley (29 games, 4/24-5/25) and Bogaerts (26 games, 5/6-6/2). Rick Porcello won the AL Cy Young Award and spearheaded a pitching staff that led the AL with nine complete games, allowed the fewest home runs in the AL (176), and set a single-season franchise record with 1,362 strikeouts. They also set a single-game franchise record with 23 strikeouts on September 25 at Tampa Bay, 21 of which came in the first nine innings. From July 8 through the end of the season, Boston's starters led the AL with a 3.56 ERA and 473.1 innings pitched. Sox outfielders combined for nine double plays (T-1st in MLB), 35 assists (T-4th in MLB), and a .993 fielding percentage (1st in MLB). Boston tied a franchise record for most starters in an All-Star Game, with Ortiz (DH), Bogaerts (SS), Betts (RF), and Bradley (LF) starting for the AL club. RHP Steven Wright was voted in by the players, while RHP Craig Kimbrel (replaced due to injury) was selected by AL Manager Ned Yost in his debut season with the Red Sox. The David Ortiz era came to a close on 10/10 when, after Boston's 4-3 loss to Cleveland in Game 3 of the ALDS, the largest postseason crowd in Fenway Park history (39,530) stayed long after the final out to give Big Papi a proper sendoff. Ortiz emerged from the clubhouse, walked to the pitcher's mound, and saluted the crowd, unable to hold back tears as he showed his appreciation.

STATUES AT FENWAY PARK

Some of the greatest Red Sox players and stories are immortalized as three statues located just outside Fenway Park's Gate B on Van Ness Street.

TED WILLIAMS

The Red Sox honored Hall of Famer Ted Williams with the first statue in the ballpark's history, unveiled on April 16, 2004. An idea originally proposed by Mayor Thomas M. Menino after Williams' passing in 2002, the statue depicts the slugger, standing 8-feet, 6-inches tall, holding a bat and placing his cap on a child with cancer. The statue was moved a few feet down Van Ness St. in 2010, when the Teammates statue was installed.

TEAMMATES

On June 9, 2010, the Red Sox unveiled a statue dedicated to Bobby Doerr, Dom DiMaggio, Johnny Pesky, and Ted Williams. The statue recognizes the remarkable bonds of camaraderie that these four Red Sox legends enjoyed for over half a century, first as teammates, and then as lifelong friends, the story of which was immortalized in David Halberstam's memorable book, The Teammates – Portrait of a Friendship.

CARL YASTRZEMSKI

Hall of Famer Carl Yastrzemski was on hand when a statue in his honor was dedicated on September 22, 2013. The statue captures a moment that took place on Sunday, October 2, 1983, when the lifelong Red Sox star tipped his helmet to fans at Fenway Park before the final at-bat of his 23-year career. Yaz retired that day having played the most games that any player had ever played to that point in the history of MLB (3,308).

Ownership History

- 1901-02 Charles W. Somers of Ohio was one of the founders and financiers of the new American League who also owned the Cleveland team and made his fortune in the lumber and coal business.
- 1903-04 Henry J. Killilea was a Milwaukee lawyer and expert on baseball law who played an important role in the negotiations that ended the National League-American League war in early 1903.
- 1904-11 John I. Taylor was an avid sportsman and son of the owner, publisher and editor of The Boston Globe. He changed the team's nickname to "Red Sox" in 1907 and oversaw the land acquisition and construction of Fenway Park, which opened in 1912.
- 1912-13 James R. McAleer was a National League outfielder during the 1890s who came out of retirement to help form the new American League's St. Louis franchise in 1901 as a player-manager. In December 1911, he bought 50 percent of the Red Sox from Taylor and was named club president.
- 1914-16 Joseph J. Lannin was a Canadian-born hotel and real estate tycoon in New York and Boston. He was a zealous baseball fan with a minority share in the National League Boston Braves before he purchased McAleer's 50 percent controlling interest in the Red Sox in early 1914.
- 1917-23 Harry H. Frazee was a long-time flamboyant baseball fan who was born in Peoria, IL. He became successful in real estate management and stock brokerage and as a Broadway theatrical producer. He purchased the Red Sox in late 1916 from Lannin in a deal that included Fenway Park.
- 1923-33 J.A. Robert Quinn was a career baseball executive who was business manager of the St. Louis Browns prior to putting together a syndicate that purchased the Red Sox from Frazee on August 1, 1923. He was appointed team president and presiding owner.
- 1933 Thomas A. Yawkey was a New York entrepreneur who bought the team on February 25, 4 days after his 30th birthday, and placed the club in a Trust.
- 7/9/1976 Tom Yawkey died leaving his widow, Jean, as the primary beneficiary.
- 1978 The Yawkey Estate sold the team to a partnership including Jean R. Yawkey, Edward G. (Buddy) LeRoux, Jr. and Haywood C. Sullivan. The sale was approved by the American League on May 23.
- 1981 Jean R. Yawkey moved to Boston, established the Jean R. Yawkey Trust, and transferred team ownership interests to it. She appointed John L. Harrington as co-Trustee.
- 1987 The Jean R. Yawkey Trust bought out Edward G. (Buddy) LeRoux, Jr., giving it 2 out of 3 General Partner votes.
- 1992 Jean R. Yawkey died in February and the Jean R. Yawkey Trust continued with John Harrington as Trustee with sole authority over Red Sox matters.
- 1993 The Jean R. Yawkey Trust bought out Haywood C. Sullivan's 1 General Partnership unit, giving it all 3 General Partnership units of the Red Sox, along with the three Red Sox limited partnership units previously acquired (53.49%).
- 2002 The Jean R. Yawkey Trust sold the club to a group led by John W. Henry, Tom Werner and Larry Lucchino on December 20, 2001. The sale was approved by Major League Baseball on January 16 and closed on February 27.

NOTE: The W-L-T columns total 1 game less than the 18,107 game total reflected above as a result of a protested game and a major league ruling. On 7/28/1924 the Red Sox played a 10-inning game vs. STL, a supposed 10-5 win. St. Louis protested the game and AL President Ban Johnson ordered the game replayed on 9/13 as the 2nd game of a doubleheader. The game of 7/28 was discounted and Red Sox Manager Lee Fohl and the STL manager were credited with a no decision. The Red Sox won the replay of the protested game 13-11.

Beginning with the 1920 season, the major league rule states: "If a protested game of at least 5 innings duration was ordered replayed in its entirety, then no win or loss is credited, but both managers are credited with a no-decision game."

All-Time Roster

1,766 players have appeared in at least 1 game for the Red Sox since the team joined the American League in 1901. (Bold-faced = living through 2/1/17)

Thomas A. Yawkey Red Sox Most Valuable Player Award

Each year the Boston chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America presents the Thomas A. Yawkey Award to the Red Sox Most Valuable Player. From 1937 through 1952 the award went to either a Red Sox or a member of the Boston Braves. The Braves moved to Milwaukee prior to the 1953 season and the award became strictly a Red Sox MVP selection. After Mr. Yawkey's death in 1976, the Boston Writers renamed the award in his honor. Multiple winners include Carl Yastrzemski (6), David Ortiz (5), Roger Clemens (4), Dwight Evans (4), Mo Vaughn (4), Ted Williams (4), Pedro Martinez (3), Rick Burleson (2), Carlton Fisk (2), Nomar Garciaparra (2), Jackie Jensen (2), Ellis Kinder (2), Frank Malzone (2), Dustin Pedroia (2) and Jim Rice (2).

Tony Conigliaro Award

In 1990, the Red Sox instituted a national award to honor the memory of their former star outfielder Tony Conigliaro. The award is presented to a Major Leaguer who has overcome adversity through the attributes of spirit, determination and courage that were trademarks of Tony C. A special panel composed of the media, members of the MLB office, Tony's brothers Billy and Richie, and a fan make the selection. The presentation takes place at the Boston BBWAA dinner in January.

Padres infielder Yangervis Solarte was the recipient for the 2016 season. In September, Solarte's 31-year-old wife and mother of their three children, Yuliett Pimentel Solarte, succumbed to cancer. Solarte left the club in July to spend four days at his wife's side in the midst of her battle, and again in September when her condition worsened. A week after his wife's death, Solarte returned to the club, their three daughters and his mother accompanying him to San Diego. In 109 games, he batted .286 with career highs in home runs (15) and RBI (71).

The 1st winner was Royals OF Jim Eisenreich, who overcame a neurological movement disorder, Tourette Syndrome, to become a productive performer after being out of baseball for 2 1/2 years. Bret Saberhagen, as a Red Sox, won the honor in 1998. After reconstructive surgery in May 1996, months of intensive rehab proved futile. He missed the 1996 season and was signed in Nov. '96 by the Red Sox. He made his 1st start in 2 years on 8/22/97. In 1998, he went 15-8 with a 3.96 in 31 starts. LHP Jon Lester was the 2007 award recipient. After undergoing treatment for anaplastic large cell lymphoma, diagnosed in August, 2006, and being declared cancer-free that December, Lester returned to the majors on July 23, 2007. He went 4-0 in 12 games (11 starts) the rest of the season. He made 2 relief appearances in the 2007 ALCS including 3.0 scoreless IP in a Game 4 loss. Jon started and won the decisive WS Game 4 (5.2 scoreless IP) at COL as the Red Sox won their 2nd WS title in 4 seasons. In 2013, Red Sox RHP John Lackey was the winner. That season was one of the best of his ML career after he missed all of 2012 recovering from Tommy John surgery. He finished second on the team with 189.1 IP and ranked seventh in the AL with 4.0 SO/BB. He was the winning pitcher in the deciding Game 6 of the 2013 World Series vs. the Cardinals (6.2 IP, 1 R, 9 H, 5 K).

Conigliaro died 2/24/1990 after an 8-year struggle to return from a massive heart attack that left him severely handicapped. Tony signed with the Red Sox in 1963 after graduation from St. Mary's High School in Lynn, MA. In his only minor league season, he hit .363 with 24 HR and 74 RBI in 83 games for Wellsville, earning New York-Penn League MVP Rookie of the Year honors. He broke in with the Red Sox in 1964, hit a HR in his 1st at-bat at Fenway Park, and finished with a .290 AVG and 24 HR to earn an All-Rookie selection. Tony became the youngest player to lead a league in HR with 32 in 1965 and the youngest AL player to reach 100 career HR. Mel Ott was the youngest in history at 22 years, 4 months, 10 days. He was 2nd-youngest (22 years, 6 months, 16 days). His career was tragically shortened when he was hit in the face by a pitch at Fenway Park 8/18/1967. He made a dramatic comeback in 1969, hit 56 HR with 198 RBI in 2 years, but he was never the same player. Conigliaro spent 1971 with the Angels and was out of baseball until he tried another comeback with the Red Sox in 1975. After an excellent Spring Training, he made the regular-season roster and got the team's 1st hit of that season and later the club's 1st HR. He was outrighted to Triple-A Pawtucket in mid-June and retired shortly after.

The Hutch Award

The Hutch Award has been given annually to the Major League player who best exemplifies the character, fighting spirit and competitive desire of the late pitcher (Detroit 1939-53) and manager (Tigers, Cardinals, Reds), Fred Hutchinson. The award, which sits in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, was instituted in 1965 and is sponsored by the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in Seattle, WA. Five Red Sox players have received the award: Carl Yastrzemski in 1967, Tony Conigliaro in 1970, Andre Dawson in 1994, Mark Loretta in 2006, and Jon Lester in 2008. Mickey Mantle was the first recipient in 1965. Dustin McGowan was the 2016 selection.

Heart and Hustle Award

The Heart and Hustle Award is given annually by the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association to the active Major League player who demonstrates a passion for the game of baseball and best embodies the values, spirit, and tradition of the game. It is the only award in MLB that is voted on by former players. In 2013, Dustin Pedroia became the first Red Sox to receive the award. David Eckstein was the first recipient in 2005.

Most Hits in an All-Star Game

Ted Williams and Carl Yastrzemski are tied with Joe Medwick for most hits in an All-Star Game with 4. Williams had his 4 (2 singles, 2 home runs) on 7/9/1946 at Fenway Park in a 12-0 American League win. Yastrzemski hit 3 singles and a double on 7/14/1970 in Cincinnati in a 12-inning, 5-4 National League win. He was named Outstanding Player of the game.

All-Star Games at Fenway Park

On 7/13/1999, the Red Sox hosted the 3rd All-Star Game ever to be played at Fenway Park. The American League defeated the National League, 4-1, as Pedro Martinez, the eventual MVP of the Mid-Summer Classic, started and struck out 5 of the 6 batters he faced for the win.

Fenway Park was the site of the 2nd All-Star Game played in 1961. That game featured solid pitching by both sides and ended in a 1-1 tie that was called after 9 innings and a 30-minute rain delay. The Tigers' Rocky Colavito hit a 1st-inning home run for the AL, which managed only 4 hits in the game. The NL's only run scored on an RBI single by the Cardinals' Bill White off Red Sox rookie Don Schwall, who allowed all 5 NL hits in 3.0 innings. The other Red Sox representative at the '61 game at Fenway was manager Mike Higgins, who served as a coach.

The 1st All-Star Game held at Fenway was on 7/9/1946 after a 1-year hiatus due to World War II-related travel restrictions. The American League defeated the National League, 12-0, in a game highlighted by the hitting heroics of Ted Williams. Williams delivered 2 home runs, 2 singles and a walk in his 5 plate appearances, scoring 4 runs and driving in 5 as the AL out-hit the NL, 14-3. In addition to Williams, 7 other Red Sox were AL All-Stars in '46: Johnny Pesky, Dom DiMaggio, Bobby Doerr, Rudy York, Hal Wagner, Dave Ferriss and Mickey Harris.

1945 All-Star Replacement Game

The 1945 All-Star Game was scheduled for Fenway Park. However, due to the on-going war in Europe and with Japan, the game was cancelled, the only year no game has been played since the series began in 1933.

On 7/9-10/1945, there were 9 exhibitions played with proceeds going to benefit war relief efforts. On 7/9, games were played at Chicago's Comiskey Park (Cubs vs. White Sox), New York's Polo Grounds (Yankees vs. Giants), in Great Lakes, IL (Athletics vs. Great Lakes Navy Team), in Cleveland (Reds vs. Indians), and in Indiantown Gap, PA (Pirates vs. Indiantown Gap Army Team). The biggest crowds were 47,144 (Chicago) and 41,267 (New York).

On 7/10, games were played at Washington's Griffith Stadium (Dodgers vs. Senators), St. Louis' Sportsman's Park (Cardinals vs. Browns), Boston's Fenway Park (Braves vs. Red Sox), and Philadelphia's Shibe Park (Phillies vs. Athletics). The highest attendance figures were in Washington (28,791) and St. Louis (24,113).

The only ML team that didn't play was Detroit, which was denied permission to travel to Pittsburgh by the U.S. Government. The Pirates therefore played a U.S. Army team. The A's played a game each day in 2 locations.

The game at Fenway Park drew 22,809 plus 846 servicemen and women and raised $70,000 for the United War Fund. New Commissioner Senator A.B. "Happy" Chandler made his 1st official visit to Boston and took part in the 1st-pitch ceremonies with Massachusetts Governor Maurice Tobin.

The Red Sox won the game, 8-1, behind rookie pitching star Dave Ferriss and 3 hits, including a home run, by right fielder George "Catfish" Metkovich.

Red Sox Hall of Fame/Cooperstown

Since its inception in 1995, the Red Sox Hall of Fame has recognized the outstanding careers of former Red Sox players and managers. A 16-member selection committee made up of Red Sox broadcasters and executives, past and present media personnel, and representatives from The Sports Museum of New England and the BoSox Booster Club are responsible for electing candidates. The feats of non-uniformed Red Sox executive personnel/ Red Sox broadcasters are also considered for induction. A memorable moment in Red Sox history is recognized as well for its special significance. To be eligible for nomination, players/managers must have spent at least 3 years with the Red Sox and must have been out of uniform as an active player/manager at least 3 years. Non-uniformed personnel selected and the memorable moment will be chosen only by a unanimous vote of the Selection Committee. The next Red Sox Hall of Fame induction ceremony will take place in 2018.

The Red Sox Hall of Fame's 1995 inaugural class of 16 included 9 inductees who had previously been elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. The names of all 17 Red Sox Hall of Fame inductees who had been enshrined in Cooperstown prior to becoming Red Sox Hall of Famers are in boldface below.

Longest Known Home Runs at Fenway Park

On June 19, 1977, Carl Yastrzemski hit the longest known home run to the right of the bleachers, an 8th-inning bomb off Yankees RHP Dick Tidrow. It reached approximately 460 feet before striking the facing of the right-field roof about 20 feet to the right of where the retired No. 42 now appears. It is the only ball to reach the right-field roof façade.

On September 21, 1956, Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, batting left-handed, hit the longest known homer to straight-away center field off RHP Frank Sullivan. It carried approximately 480 feet before it struck one foot below the top of the brick barrier located behind Section 36.

On June 9, 1946, Ted Williams hit a 502-foot home run to right off Detroit RHP Fred Hutchinson. The ball landed on top of the straw hat of Joseph A. Boucher, 56, a construction engineer from Albany, NY who was sitting in Section 42, Row 37, Seat 21. "The sun was right in our eyes," he said. "All we could do was duck. I'm glad I didn't stand up. They say it bounced a dozen rows higher, but after it hit my head, I was no longer interested." At that time the bleachers were benches and not individual seats.

Six home runs were hit over the old center field wall to the right of the flag pole (see list below). The elevation over the old brick wall was installed prior to the 1976 season and was removed prior to the 2003 season. No one hit a home run over that elevation that was in place from 1976-2002.

RED SOX IN THE POSTSEASON

Dustin Pedroia and David Ortiz celebrate during Game 7 of the 2007 ALCS. The Red Sox clinched the series with an 11-2 win over the Indians en route to their second World Series title in four years.

Red Sox in the Postseason

The Red Sox are 90-80-1 all-time in postseason play, having advanced to the postseason 22 times in 116 American League seasons (1901-2016), including 14 times in the last 31 years and 8 times in the last 14 years. Boston is 19-14 in 33 postseason series, having gone 6-5 in 11 trips to the AL Division Series (19-21 in Division Series play), 5-5 in 10 trips to the AL Championship Series (26-31 in Championship Series play) and 8-4 in 12 trips to the World Series (45-28-1 in World Series games), with 7-game losses in 1946, '67, '75, and '86. The Red Sox' 8 World Series titles are tied with the Giants for 4th all-time behind the Yankees (27), Cardinals (11), and A's (9).

The Boston Americans, who became the Red Sox in 1908, won the 1st World Series ever held (1903), 1 of only 4 best-of-9 Series to be played (again in 1919-21). By beating the Pittsburgh Pirates of the more established National League, they caused such an embarrassment that the NL refused to participate the following year when the Red Sox repeated as AL Champions.

The Sox have won 3 World Series titles (2004, 2007, 2013) following an 86-year Championship drought, tied with the Giants for the most since 2000.

Boston set a major league record with an 8-game winning streak to close out its run to the World Championship in 2004 (matched in 2005 by the Chicago White Sox, who won their final 8 games en route to the Championship). The Red Sox also had a 7-game winning streak starting from Game 5 of the 2007 ALCS through their World Series win in 2007.

The Red Sox are 49-34-1 in postseason home games, including a 42-32-1 postseason mark at Fenway Park. They also hosted home World Series games at the Huntington Avenue Grounds in 1903 and at Braves Field in 1915 and 1916. The Sox clinched World Series titles at home in 1903 at the Huntington Avenue Grounds, in 1912 during Fenway Park's 1st season, in 1916 playing at Braves Field, and in 1918 and 2013 at Fenway Park.

WHO SAID IT CAN'T BE DONE?

The 2004 Red Sox became the 1st team in baseball history and just the 3rd team in the history of Major League Baseball, the NBA, and the NHL, to overcome a 3-0 deficit to win a best-of-7 postseason series when they beat the Yankees in a 7-game ALCS...Both previous instances had come in hockey...Toronto rallied past Detroit in the 1942 Stanley Cup Finals, and the Islanders turned the trick against Pittsburgh in the 2nd round of the 1975 playoffs.

RED SOX FACTS - WALKING AWAY A WINNER

The Red Sox have 12 walk-off wins overall in their postseason annals, including 8 in their last 8 appearances...Here's the complete list:

Game 8, 1912 World Series: Larry Gardner's sac fly with 1 out in the bottom of the 10th scored Steve Yerkes and capped a 2-run rally that gave the Red Sox a 3-2 win over the New York Giants and the World Series championship in their 1st season at Fenway Park...The Sox won the Series 4 games to 3 with 1 tie.

Game 3, 1915 World Series: Duffy Lewis delivered an RBI single with 1 out in the bottom of the 9th, bringing Harry Hooper home with the game-winner as the Red Sox edged the Phillies, 2-1, at Braves Field.

Game 2, 1916 World Series: Pinch-hitter Del Gainer singled home Mike McNally with 1 out in the bottom of the 14th to give the Red Sox a 2-1 win over Brooklyn at Braves Field.

Game 6, 1975 World Series: Carlton Fisk led off the bottom of the 12th with a homer off Cincinnati's Pat Darcy, giving Boston a 7-6 victory and forcing a decisive Game 7.

Game 3, 2003 ALDS: A loss from elimination, the Red Sox lived to fight another day after pinch-hitter Trot Nixon drilled a 2-run homer off Rich Harden with 1 out in the bottom of the 11th.

Game 3, 2004 ALDS: David Ortiz gave the Red Sox a 3-game sweep of the Angels with a 2-run homer into the Green Monster Seats with 2 outs in the bottom of the 10th, lifting the Sox into the ALCS with an 8-6 win.

Game 4, 2004 ALCS: Down 3 games to none, the Red Sox stayed alive when David Ortiz crushed a 2-run blast to right field off the Yankees' Paul Quantrill.

Game 5, 2004 ALCS: The Red Sox continued their quest toward the greatest comeback in baseball history when, for the 2nd night in a row, David Ortiz delivered the game-winning run in walk-off fashion...This time, facing Esteban Loaiza, Ortiz singled Johnny Damon home from 2nd with 2 outs in the bottom of the 14th for a 5-4 win.

Game 2, 2007 ALDS: Manny Ramirez belted a 3-run, walk-off homer over the Green Monster and into the Boston night off Francisco Rodriguez in the bottom of the 9th inning to give the Red Sox a 6-3 win over the Angels.

Game 4, 2008 ALDS: Jed Lowrie drove in Jason Bay with a 2-out, walk-off single in the bottom of the 9th inning, giving the Red Sox their 5th Division Series win in club history...It was the 23rd time in postseason history that a series was decided by a walk-off hit, the 4th time that a rookie had done so.

Game 5, 2008 ALCS: J.D. Drew drove in Kevin Youkilis from 2nd base with a 9th-inning, walk-off single to cap a 7-run comeback...It was the largest postseason comeback since Game 4 of the 1929 World Series, the 2nd largest in playoff history, and the largest ever for a team facing elimination.

Game 2, 2013 ALCS: After David Ortiz's 1st career postseason grand slam tied the game in the 8th, Jarrod Saltalamacchia drove in the game-winner with a walk-off single in the 9th, scoring Jonny Gomes for a 6-5 victory to tie the series with the Tigers 1-1. It was the 6th time in postseason history that a team came back to win after trailing by at least 4 runs in the 8th inning or later, 1st for the Red Sox, and the 2nd such postseason win to end in a walk-off.

A 3-time All-Star, 8-time Gold Glove Award-winning right fielder and Red Sox Hall of Famer, Dwight will serve as a Red Sox player development consultant for a 14th straight year. Dwight was Boston's major league hitting coach in 2002 after rejoining the organization as a player development consultant in 2001, specializing in minor league outfield and hitting instruction.

Evans played 19 years and 2,505 games in a Sox uniform, 2nd in club history. He was a member of 4 AL East Championship squads (1975, 1986, 1988, 1990) and 2 AL Championship teams (1975, 1986). From 1981-90, he hit 251 homers, most in the AL, and his 605 extra-base hits in the 1980s were the most in the majors. He retired in 1991 and served as a roving minor league instructor with the White Sox in 1993 and the major league hitting coach with the Rockies in 1994.

Keith Foulke

Former All-Star closer and 2004 World Series Champion Keith Foulke enters his 2nd season as a player development consultant in 2017. In 11 major league seasons, Foulke posted a 41-37 record and a 3.33 ERA in 619 games, amassing 191 saves for the Giants (1997), White Sox (1997-2002), A's (2003, 2008), and Red Sox (2004-2006).

After an American League-leading 43 saves in his All-Star 2003 season, Foulke signed with Boston in 2004 and saved 32 regular-season games and 3 postseason contests en route to the club's World Series Championship. He was on the mound to clinch the victory in Game 4 of the Fall Classic in St. Louis, fielding an Edgar Renteria grounder for the final out. The South Dakota-born right-hander retired with 47 Red Sox saves, 15th in club history.

Tommy Harper

Tommy enters his 15th season as a player development consultant with the Red Sox after 3 years as the club's major league 1st base, outfield, and baserunning coach. A member of the 2010 Red Sox Hall of Fame class, Harper spent 3 seasons in a Red Sox uniform (1972-74) and held the club single-season record for stolen bases in a season (54 in 1973) until 2009. He enjoyed a 15-year big league career with 8 teams, hitting .257 with 146 homers, 567 RBI and 408 stolen bases. In 1970 with Milwaukee, Harper became the 1st infielder (5th overall) to eclipse both 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in the same season (31 homers and 38 steals).

Following his playing career, Tommy worked in the Yankees system before returning to Boston in the public relations department in 1979 and as the major league first base coach and baserunning instructor from 1980-84. Before rejoining the Red Sox in 2000, he coached 10 years with the Expos, his final 7 as the hitting, baserunning and outfield coach.

Carl Yastrzemski

Carl succeeded Ted Williams in left field as a rookie in 1961 and today still follows in his footsteps instructing young Red Sox hitters. A 3-time batting champion and 18-time All-Star, the Hall of Fame outfielder won the Triple Crown in 1967 when he led the AL in batting (.326), home runs (44) and RBI (121). He was the 1st AL player to collect 400 home runs and 3,000 hits in a career.

In 23 years with the Red Sox, Yaz earned 7 Gold Gloves and the 1967 AL MVP Award. He retired ranked 1st on the all-time list for career games (3,308), 3rd in at-bats (11,988) and walks (1,845), 6th in total bases (5,539) and doubles (646), 7th in hits (3,419), and 10th in RBI (1,844). In September 2013, the Red Sox erected a statue in his likeness outside

Fenway Park, the third statue created by the club.

Special Assignment Instructors

Jim Rice

Jim returns as a special organizational instructor in 2017, his 45th season with the Red Sox. He spent 6 years as Boston's big league hitting coach from 1995-2000 after 3 seasons as a roving minor league hitting instructor. He also appears as an analyst on NESN's broadcast team. Rice was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2009 and was part of the Red Sox Hall of Fame's inaugural 1995 class.

The 8-time All-Star hit .298 with 382 homers, 2,452 hits, 373 doubles, and 79 triples in 2,089 games, all for the Red Sox from 1974-89. He is the only player ever to have 3 straight 35-homer, 200-hit years (1977-79). The club's No. 1 draft pick in 1971, Rice helped Boston to the 1975 AL pennant as a rookie. In 1978, he was the American League MVP, leading the majors with 213 hits, 46 homers, 139 RBI, 15 triples, 406 total bases, and a .600 slugging pct. He helped Boston to the AL pennant and finished 3rd in MVP voting in 1986.

Rice is the only AL player since 1937 with 400 total bases in a single season and the only player ever to lead either league outright in homers, triples and RBI. He led the AL in total bases 3 straight years (1977-79), tying for the AL record. Jim and his wife, Corine, are the parents of Chauncy Brandon and Carissa Jacinda.

Luis Tiant

Luis is a special assignment instructor once again in 2017. He rejoined the Red Sox organization in 2002 as pitching coach for Short-A Lowell. A clutch performer in 8 seasons in Boston from 1971-78, "El Tiantito" compiled a 122-81 record and a 3.36 ERA for the club and was inducted into the Red Sox Hall of Fame in 1997. During Boston's 1975 pennant run, he beat Oakland with a 3-hitter in the 1st game of the ALCS, shut out Cincinnati in the 1st game of the World Series, and defeated the Reds again in Game 4 with a 163-pitch complete game. His final Red Sox outing, a 2-hitter on October 1, 1978, set up a 1-game playoff vs. the Yankees.

The Cuban-born Tiant went 229-172 with a 3.30 ERA and 2,416 K's in 19 major league seasons with the Indians (1964-69), Twins (1970), Red Sox, Yankees (1979-80), Pirates (1981), and Angels (1982). The 3-time All-Star had 4 seasons with 20+ wins, 3 years with 200+ strikeouts, and led the AL in ERA twice and in shutouts 3 times. He served as pitching coach in the Dodgers (1992-95) and White Sox (1997) systems and was Nicaragua's pitching coach in the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta. He spent 1998-2001 as head coach for Division III Savannah (GA) College of Art and Design. Luis and his wife, Maria, have 3 children: Luis Jr., Isabel, and Daniel.

Red Sox on NESN

NESN (New England Sports Network), the official home of the Boston Red Sox, is in its 34th year of carrying Red Sox baseball. Consistently one of the top rated regional sports networks in the country, NESN's Red Sox coverage includes one hour of pre- and post-game programming before and after every game as well as three original, daily news shows that include exclusive Red Sox content. Veteran play-by-play announcer Dave O'Brien enters his second season with NESN and will be joined again by Red Sox Hall of Famer Jerry Remy, Baseball Hall of Famer Dennis Eckersley, and former Red Sox and national baseball analyst Steve Lyons. Tom Caron is in his 14th year as host of NESN's pre- and post-game coverage. He will be joined by an All-Star line-up of studio analysts that includes Eckersley, Lyons, MLB Hall of Famer Jim Rice, and Red Sox Hall of Famer Tim Wakefield.

DAVE O'BRIEN enters his 27th year of Major League Baseball broadcasting, his second in NESN's play-by-play role after nine seasons in the Red Sox radio booth. O'Brien also announces NCAA basketball for ESPN, where he has handled a variety of play-by-play roles, and called MLB International's coverage of the American League Championship Series and World Series from 2004-09. He worked as both a radio and television announcer for the Florida Marlins from 1993-2001 and broadcast television games for the New York Mets from 2003-05. O'Brien has also done play-by-play for the Atlanta Braves (1990-91) as well as college football and basketball action for the University of Georgia and University of Miami. The Quincy, MA native is a Syracuse University graduate.

JERRY REMY (Twitter: @Jerry_Remy) has served as the Red Sox color analyst on NESN since 1988, announcing over 3,900 Red Sox games during his career. With almost 40 years of service to the Red Sox organization, Remy was elected to the Red Sox Hall of Fame in 2006 for his playing and broadcasting accomplishments. A native of Somerset, MA, Remy was an infielder for 10 years in the majors with the Angels (1975-77) and Red Sox (1978-84), posting a career .275 batting AVG and 208 stolen bases in 1,154 games. During his career he played with 7 Baseball Hall of Famers and 12 Red Sox Hall of Famers. In September of 2007, Remy was elected President of Red Sox Nation through online voting.

DENNIS ECKERSLEY (Twitter: @Eck43) has been at NESN since 2003 and will split time between the broadcast booth and pre/post-game shows. He was elected into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2005 after pitching 24 seasons in the major leagues with 5 teams (Indians, Red Sox, Cubs, A's, and Cardinals), including two different stints with the Red Sox (1978-84, 1998). He spent the first 12 years of his career as a starting pitcher then moved to the bullpen to become one of the most dominant closers in the game. During a 5-year stretch beginning in 1988, Eckersley averaged 44 saves, a 1.88 ERA, more than 1 strikeout per inning, and less than 1 walk per 9 innings. In 1992, Eckersley became only the second relief pitcher to win both the AL MVP and Cy Young Award in the same year. The 6-time All-Star has served as a postseason studio and game analyst for TBS since 2008.

TOM CARON (Twitter: @TomCaron) enters his 16th season as a member of NESN's Red Sox broadcasts, and his 14th season as host of the pre- and post-game shows. The Lewiston, ME native joined NESN in 1995 and has served as a Red Sox field reporter, studio host for Boston Bruins hockey, and play-by-play announcer for the Beanpot and Hockey East. Before joining NESN, he served as a sports anchor in Plattsburgh, NY; Hanover, NH; and Portland, ME. In 1993, he joined the Portland Pirates of the AHL as play-by-play announcer and communications director and was inducted into the team's Hall of Fame in 2014. Caron is involved in many local and regional charities, including Mass Mentoring, Good Sports, Inc., the Run to Home Base Program, and the Red Sox Foundation.

STEVE LYONS is in his fourth season as a Red Sox analyst on NESN. He will split time between pre/post-game shows and the broadcast booth. A three-time national Emmy award-winning broadcaster, he also serves as a baseball analyst on daily sports news shows NESN Live, NESN Sports Today, and NESN Sports Update. Selected by the Red Sox in the first round (19th overall) in the 1981 June Draft out of Oregon State, Lyons played nine seasons in the major leagues (1985-93) with four different teams, including four stints in Boston. Voted the 1995 10th Player Award winner by Red Sox fans, he played at least one game at every position during his career, spending most of his time in CF (237 G) and at 3B (229 G). Lyons began his broadcasting career in 1996 with FOX Sports and has worked for both the FOX national and regional networks as a game analyst, studio analyst, and studio host. During his 11 years on FOX's national broadcast, he worked in the booth or on pre- and post-game shows for the Divisional Series, Championship Series, and World Series. He also spent 9 years with the Los Angeles Dodgers as a pre- and post-game host and game announcer.

JIM RICE is in his 15th year as a pre/post-game analyst on NESN (since 2003). In 2009, he became the 32nd member of the Red Sox to be elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Rice played 16 seasons in the major leagues, all with Boston. The eight-time All-Star finished his career with a .298 batting AVG, 382 home runs, and 1,451 RBI. Rice was voted the AL MVP in 1978 and helped lead the Red Sox to two AL pennants (1975 and 1986). He ranks third behind only Ted Williams and Carl Yastrzemski on the Red Sox all-time leaders list in hits and total bases, and fourth in home runs and RBI. Since retiring after the 1989 season, Rice has remained active in the Red Sox organization, serving as a minor league hitting instructor from 1992-1994 before joining the parent club as hitting coach from 1995-2000. He currently serves as a special organizational instructor for the team.

TIM WAKEFIELD (Twitter: @TimWakefield49) joined NESN's pre/post-game team in 2012 after his final season in baseball in 2011. His 19-year MLB career included 17 years as a popular member of the Red Sox (1995-2011). He ended his career with 200 wins, 186 of them with Boston, which ranks third behind only Cy Young and Roger Clemens on the Red Sox all-time career win list. He was the American League Comeback Player of the Year in 1995, an All-Star in 2009, and a two-time World Series Champion. He was also honored as a champion off the field as one of the most charitable players in the league, winning the Roberto Clemente Award in 2010 after being nominated eight times during his career. He has continued working closely with the Red Sox, and currently serves as a special assignment instructor as well as honorary chairman of the Red Sox Foundation. He was inducted into the Red Sox Hall of Fame in May of 2016.

GUERIN AUSTIN (Twitter: @GuerinAustin) enters her third season as NESN's Boston Red Sox sideline reporter. Austin joined NESN in September of 2014 and served as the network's Boston Bruins rink-side reporter for the 2014-15 season. During the baseball off-season, she serves as an anchor/reporter on NESN's three daily sports news programs. Before NESN, Austin spent five years in Washington, D.C., where she served as host of Caps Red Line, a weekly behind-the-scenes look at the Washington Capitals airing on the NHL Network, and as a morning host/reporter at the FOX affiliate in Richmond, VA. The 2004 Miss Nebraska USA got her start in television as an on-air host and associate producer at the ABC affiliate in Denver, and at the CW station in Omaha, Nebraska.

Red Sox Radio Network

The Red Sox Radio Network carries every regular season game. The Red Sox and Entercom Communications announced a 10-year agreement for 2007-16 in May 2006, and in April 2016 announced a renewal through the 2023 season. A network of over 60 stations broadcasts Boston's games throughout the New England area. Joe Castiglione and former Pirates' broadcaster Tim Neverett will provide radio coverage for most games in 2017. Mike Mutnansky serves as the host of pre- and post-game Red Sox coverage.

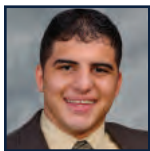

JOE CASTIGLIONE is in his 35th season on Red Sox radio, the longest of any Red Sox radio broadcaster, and has the longest tenure of any Boston broadcaster. Prior to coming to Boston, Castiglione called television games for the Cleveland Indians in 1979 and 1982 and for the Milwaukee Brewers in 1981. The Hamden, CT native has also announced television games for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers and did college basketball on NESN for 6 years. During the offseason, Joe taught classes in broadcast journalism at Northeastern University for 29 years (1985-2013), at Franklin Pierce University for 15 years (1996-2010), and at Emerson College in 1996. Since 1990, he has also served as a Jimmy Fund staff member in fundraising. A graduate of both Colgate (undergraduate) and Syracuse Universities (graduate), Joe is the author of Broadcast Rites and Sites-I Saw It on the Radio with the Boston Red Sox, which was published in 2004, and Can You Believe It, 30 Years Inside Red Sox Baseball, published in 2012. Castiglione was inducted into the Red Sox Hall of Fame in 2014. He and his wife, Jan, have 3 children and 6 grandchildren. They reside in Marshfield, MA.

TIM NEVERETT, a New England native, is entering his second season as the radio play-by-play voice of the Boston Red Sox. Previously, Tim spent seven seasons as the radio and television play-by-play announcer for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Before joining the Pirates, Neverett spent four years working for FSN Rocky Mountain, including as a studio host for Colorado Rockies games during the 2008 season. He also served the network as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey, lacrosse, arena football, and track and field. In addition, Tim hosted talk shows for both the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network and ESPN 560 in Denver, Colorado, where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine. Prior to his time in Denver, Neverett lived in Las Vegas, calling games on radio and TV for the Padres' and Dodgers' Triple-A teams as well as Las Vegas' International Hockey League team and the UNLV baseball and football teams. Neverett, who began his broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate Nashua, also called baseball, softball, basketball and soccer as well as hockey and skiing during four Olympic Games from 2002-2008. Tim lives in Boston with his wife, Jessica, and has three sons: Matthew (22), Kyle (21), and Drew (18). He is a graduate of Emerson College in Boston where he lettered in baseball for four seasons.

Red Sox Spanish Radio Network

2017 marks the 27th season of the Red Sox Spanish-language broadcast. Every game of the regular season will be broadcast on either WCEC 1490 AM or WCCM 1110 AM. Uri Berenguer will call the action for the 2017 season.

URI BERENGUER started working with the Red Sox Spanish-language broadcast team in 2002 at only 19 years old. Bold=Active. Corrections have been made in the above listing thanks to information provided to us from John K. Moynahan, author of 50 Years At The Game, A Sports Traveler's Journey, and other sources. We appreciate this input as we attempt to produce an accurate account of our broadcasters. We are aware that through the years there have been "guest" or temporary fill-in broadcasters for Red Sox games, however, they are too numerous to list here.

Spring Training

JetBlue Park, which sits within the Fenway South Spring Training and player development complex, features the same seating bowl geometry and playing field dimensions as Fenway Park in Boston. The ballpark, which opened in 2012, has a total capacity of roughly 11,000 (including standing room and reserved lawn seating), and takes many of its defining characteristics from "America's Most Beloved Ballpark."

One such characteristic is a near replica of the iconic Fenway Park Green Monster wall. The JetBlue Park wall features the similar dimensions and signature paint color of its counterpart up north, but is unique with its 2-level seating area both on top and inside the wall under cover. The wall also features a restored manual scoreboard that served Red Sox fans for almost 3 decades at Fenway Park in Boston starting in 1976.

JetBlue Park also features:

- Close to 60,000 square feet of rolling canopy shading for the majority of seats, just about 1 ½ acres
- Approximately 9,900 fixed seats
- 8 private suites
- 378 Green Monster Wall seats on 2 separate levels
- A 50,000-square-foot Clubhouse
- A 2,400-square-foot Team Store
- A state-of-the-art 20'x24' HD video board
- 5 permanent concession stands and numerous portable carts located throughout the concourse

A street festival environment is recreated on Fenway South Drive. Much like Yawkey Way at Fenway Park, the street features specialty concession stands and entertainment, including face painting, magicians, stilt walkers, and other games for children.

While the interior of JetBlue Park pays homage to Fenway Park in Boston, the exterior of the ballpark takes cues from its natural Southwest Florida surroundings. The undulating shade canopy with its canted columns was inspired by the Cypress tree domes that surround the site. In addition to providing shade to the majority of the seating bowl, the canopy serves as one of the LEED certified ballpark's most striking architectural features. Locally manufactured masonry blocks used on parts of the exterior wall feature crushed Florida sea shells from Sanibel beaches. The light colors of the exterior enhance and contrast the deep shadows cast by the bright Florida sun.
